Contents

Introduction .................................................................................................................................. iv
Acknowledgements ..................................................................................................................... iv

Achievement Standard 91327 (Physical Education 2.1) ................................................................. 1
   Internally assessed, 3 credits
   Examine the role and significance of physical activity in the lives of young people in New Zealand

Achievement Standard 91328 (Physical Education 2.2) ............................................................... 51
   Internally assessed, 5 credits
   Demonstrate understanding of how and why biophysical principles relate to the learning of physical skills

Achievement Standard 91329 (Physical Education 2.3) ............................................................... 91
   Internally assessed, 4 credits
   Demonstrate understanding of the application of biophysical principles to training for physical activity

Achievement Standard 91330 (Physical Education 2.4) ............................................................. 139
   Internally assessed, 4 credits
   Perform a physical activity in an applied setting

Achievement Standard 91331 (Physical Education 2.5) ............................................................. 153
   Internally assessed, 4 credits
   Examine the significance for self, others and society of a sporting event, a physical activity, or a festival

Achievement Standard 91332 (Physical Education 2.6) ............................................................. 189
   Internally assessed, 4 credits
   Evaluate leadership strategies that contribute to the effective functioning of a group

Answers ........................................................................................................................................ 203
Index .......................................................................................................................................... 215