HOW TO USE YOUR CHI CUBES

"What I love about using the Chi Cubes is that they are each the absolute essence of pure energy! By holding them in your left hand you can feel what each energy feels like, as each energy is beautifully balanced and absolutely unique." - Deborah

To Start:

Place one in your left hand and then get quiet and just see what that energy feels like. It may take some time for the energy to come in, and you may feel the Chi Cube gets heavy, and after a while you may feel tingles as well. You might also notice where the energy goes in your body. Once you've played with each distinct energy, then start stacking. Stack them on top of each other in your left hand as your energy comes in through your left hand across your shoulders, through your heart meridian and down your right arm and releases through your right hand. I find that 3 is ideal for each stack but everyone is different so experiment and see which combinations resonate for you. Now take your stack of ChiCubes and put it on your alter or your dresser, and just take a very small piece of your hair and slip it under the stack. Your hair is your DNA and thus a hologram of you. Because of the carrying waves on all of our ChiCubes the energy from the cubes will jump hyperspace right into your energy field so you are resonating at those energies. Feel yourself enveloped in a protective cocoon of beautiful healing energy!

You can be in the Far East, and if your HighChi Cube Stack is at home with your DNA underneath, you will still be resonating at what you want to create, be it protection, Self Love, Intuition or Attract True Love! How elegant is that!

How to further Amplify the energy on your ChiCubes:

When you use the chi cubes, and wear your HighChi Power Pieces you are resonating at an even higher Level of energy. The energies communicate with each other and work synergistically (where the whole is greater than the sum of it's parts), setting up a resonate frequency which is even higher and so you feel even more protected, uplifted, grounded, etc. depending on which energies you are working with. It's all about the law of attraction, so what we resonate at is what we create. Let yourself Be Lifted.

All of our energies are beautifully balanced as we have over 50 different measuring techniques and have over 200 designer energies. HighChi is Le Haute couture of Subtle Energy Science! I just love to say that!

More Information:

The Acrylic Chi Cubes bond extremely well to subtle energy. To energize the Chi Cubes we are using a combination of Ancient Egyptian Sacred Geometric Prayers for very specific things such as Healthy Heart, Healthy Eyes, Healing, Attract True Love, etc., and amplifying them even further with our own beautifully balanced energies. Each prayer has different sacred geometry so they are all very unique.

The reason we know these are prayers is because we're measured them, and they all resonate to the Higher Harmonic of Gold, which presences itself when we pray. To me these Prayers feel like each sacred geometric line is a little brush that cleans away all that is in the way of having a healthy heart, healthy eyes, etc. When you use the ChiCubes or wear your HighChi Power Pieces, you are enveloped in this beautiful cocoon of Divine energy. This cocoon is an energy portal to the Divine, both sending and receiving energy information, and because we have amplified these beautiful prayers with our own energies such as Life Force, there is enormous grace, so when you ask for what you want, meditate or pray the energy is amplified even further as you yourself are producing the Higher Harmonic of Gold, so they work synergistically! Ask and you will receive.
