A woman with long brown hair, wearing a yellow apron over a white top and brown trousers, stands in a studio. She has her hands in her apron pockets. In the background, there is a white cabinet, a wicker basket filled with colorful fabric, and a black container with a gold spider. The image has a torn paper edge effect.

About the Instructor

Pinar is a designer, maker, and educator with over 20 years of experience in footwear and accessories. After launching her own brand in 2009, she contributed footwear designs to nine Istanbul Fashion Week shows and created couture collaborations for Vakko Wedding.

For more than a decade she has been teaching accessory design at universities and most recently at Vakko Esmod Istanbul, where she developed her own curriculum.

In 2020 she founded MYYAZ, a brand where craftsmanship meets contemporary form. Today she leads Myyaz Studio in London, a living atelier for workshops, open studio days, and collaborative making.

Thank you for creating with us ✨

At Myyaz Studio,
every session is guided by a master maker and designer, ensuring you learn authentic techniques while enjoying the process.

Our goal is not only to teach leathercraft, but also to create a space
where you can relax,
connect, and have fun.
You don't just leave
with a handmade object
— you leave with an experience, a story, and a piece of yourself in the craft.
