beauty girl faves: moisturizing lip products

i confess, when it comes to lips moisturizers, i'm obsessed. the feeling of a dry pout is the worst! and this time of year is brutal on skin and especially lips. every weather condition {dry, wet, cold, windy, sunny} contributes to sucking the moisture out ~ pas bon {not good}!

i have my go-to balms, moisturizers and glosses (as i'm sure you do, too), but of course you know...

i love discovering and trying out new goodies to share with you! so, take a look at the following products that will pamper and keep those lips looking and feeling fabulous...

Surya Brasil Lip Balm

available in five delicious flavors (Acai Berry, Cinnamon Cupuacu, Strawberry Buriti, Chocolate Mint and Chocolate), these balms are like a fabulous getaway for your lips. the organic ingredients are certified vegan, nutrient-rich and i love how silky they leave my lips feeling. complete with fair trade certified cacao butter, packaged in 40% recycled content, and loaded with flavonoids and omega 9 fatty acids, these beauties are simply fabulous.

have you tried any of these lippies? what are your go-to moisturizing products? let me know in the comments!
