

SURYA Brasil

Finally, I'm thankful to a company called Surya Brasil. I've used their henna hair colors a few times & I love them. I reached out to them with a question & they sent me a lot of products to try & to share. I've been using nothing but Bronner's, baking soda, & coconut oil on my skin for a long time, & I've been wanting to start trying more interesting skin care products again, so my connection with Surya Brasil couldn't have happened at a better time. Look for product reviews & giveaways throughout the next week. Spoiler alert: I love everything!

Oh here's one more thing to be thankful for. Tomorrow is Friday!
