Dear friend,

We want to thank you once again for either being closely associated with Parragon or embarking on a new journey with us! With about 3 decades of strong global existence in the field of illustrated book publishing, we have made remarkable presence felt in India for the last 16 years! Our books have always been chosen and appreciated for international quality standards, super-fine aesthetics and wonderful selection of content/stories.

As always, we have brought you a fantastic range of books that would cater to the needs of all the age groups. We have taken into consideration the market feedback as received from all the sources to bring about new titles and have deeply analysed the sales trends for the titles that have been reprinted. I'm sure with this perfect combination we will help you grow your business manifold and offer substantial range of books to our readers.

We are glad to introduce the Marvel series with the characters that have always fascinated the kids! The kids will always be happy to have a few of their favourite superhero books in their collection. We are bringing about 85 new titles and 55 reprint titles that make our publishing list stronger and substantial than ever and enhance the flavour of each genre. The content is internationally written and is well curated by our content partners to meet all the literary needs of the readers.

We have categorised our list under various heads so as to ensure a seamless selection for you. You can pick the books from our storybook collection, mythological series, puzzles and activities, early school learning series, coffee table books, reference titles, adult reference titles, business books, the best-selling encyclopedias, and thesaurus and dictionaries. With all of this at one place, you have the best selections to make.

Believe me; nothing would be more exhilarating for your customers than being in the company of books. You will be instrumental in making the books accessible for everyone around you. "Books are the best friends.", and people of all age groups can actually enjoy being in their company as they get stuck in a lockdown or have to follow social distancing norms. So, in the real sense they are being human while staying physically away from the humans!

Taking you to the wonderful world of books that has inspiration, motivation and success all across...

Sincerely yours

Vineet Sharma

PaRragon

Leading Publisher of Illustrated Books
Great Books, Amazing Prices!

Dear friend,

We want to thank you once again for either being closely associated with Parragon or embarking on a new journey with us! With about 3 decades of strong global existence in the field of illustrated book publishing, we have made remarkable presence felt in India for the last 16 years! Our books have always been chosen and appreciated for international quality standards, super-fine aesthetics and wonderful selection of content/stories.

As always, we have brought you a fantastic range of books that would cater to the needs of all the age groups. We have taken into consideration the market feedback as received from all the sources to bring about new titles and have deeply analysed the sales trends for the titles that have been reprinted. I'm sure with this perfect combination we will help you grow your business manifold and offer substantial range of books to our readers.

We are glad to introduce the Marvel series with the characters that have always fascinated the kids! The kids will always be happy to have a few of their favourite superhero books in their collection. We are bringing about 85 new titles and 55 reprint titles that make our publishing list stronger and substantial than ever and enhance the flavour of each genre. The content is internationally written and is well curated by our content partners to meet all the literary needs of the readers.

We have categorised our list under various heads so as to ensure a seamless selection for you. You can pick the books from our storybook collection; mythological series, puzzles and activities, early school learning series, coffee table books, reference titles, adult reference titles, business books, the best-selling encyclopedias, and thesaurus and dictionaries. With all of this at one place, you have the best selections to make.

Believe me; nothing would be more exhilarating for your customers than being in the company of books. You will be instrumental in making the books accessible for everyone around you. "Books are the best friends.", and people of all age groups can actually enjoy being in their company as they get stuck in a lockdown or have to follow social distancing norms. So, in the real sense they are being human while staying physically away from the humans!

Taking you to the wonderful world of books that has inspiration, motivation and success all across...

Sincerely yours
