One of the most important things to consider when ordering your competition suit is the back coverage. Angel Competition Bikinis offers 5 different back coverage options: The Micro/Scoop Cut™, The Pro Cut™, The Brazilian Cut™, The Moderate Cut and The Standard Figure Cut™. Click here to watch a video about Angel Competition Bikinis back cut options.

Consider these 4 topics before choosing your cut:

1. Your league's rules - The rules of back coverage differ greatly among the different leagues and states. Some leagues require 50% back coverage whereas some leagues have no rules at all. Talk with the show presenters, your coach, or check the competition website for the rules of your league. If you are still lost on what to order, do not hesitate to email us at meredith@acbikinis.com. We are here to help!

League Requirements	What to order
50% coverage required	The Moderate Cut
30% coverage required	The Brazilian Cut
Regional NPC show	The Brazilian Cut™ or The Pro Cut™
National NPC show	The Pro Cut™ or The Micro Scoop Cut™
IFBB Show	The Micro Scoop Cut

2. Your glute measurement - This is the measurement around the biggest and fullest part of your butt. It is important to consider this when choosing your cut. The Pro Cut™ will look very different on 32 inch glutes and 39 inch glutes. We do not recommend ordering The Pro Cut™ if your glute measurement is above 38 inches, however if you really want to show off your assets and want a super revealing cut we won't discourage you!

3. Your comfort level – This is an important consideration that is often overlooked. Remember that your family, friends, and the entire internet may see your competition photos. If you are a little self-conscious of your back side, you should stick with The Moderate Cut or possibly The Brazilian Cut™. One of the most important parts of your stage presence is confidence, we want to make you the perfect suit that makes you feel on top of the world confident when you put it on!

4. Your experience – If you are competing on the national level stage, you most likely will want to go with The Pro Cut™ or even The Micro/Scoop Cut™. For first time competitors, we do not recommend The Pro Cut™ or The Micro/Scoop Cut™. These cuts are very revealing and can be overwhelming for your first show. Keep scrolling to see some comparison photos to help determine what our different cuts will look like on your frame.

After years of minor tweaks and meetings with the NPC judges, Angel Competition Bikinis has perfected the bottom cut.

Our proprietary elastic placement flatters your glutes and accentuates the right parts. Our cuts are what the judges want to see and what will make you feel the most confident on stage!

Micro/Scoop Cut

The Micro/Scoop Cut™ is our most revealing cut. It has 1/2 inch less fabric on each cheek than The Pro Cut™. Not recommended without your coach's approval. The Micro/Scoop Cut™ comes with our Scoop front rise.

Bottom Front Cuts

We offer 3 different bottom front cuts: The Regular, The High Rise, and The Scoop. The Regular comes standard with The Pro Cut, The Brazilian Cut, and The Moderate Cut. The Scoop front rise comes standard with The Micro/Scoop Cut. The High Rise only comes by special request in your suit notes area.

Front Cut Comparison

Regular Front

Scoop Front

High Rise Front

The Regular front cut come on The Pro Cut, The Brazilian Cut, and The Moderate Cut. It works perfect for 90% of athletes. The Regular front rise is based off your height and glute measurement to fit how the judges want it to look on stage.

Regular Front

The High Rise front cut is special ordered by athletes that want a more conservative look on stage. It is also ordered by athletes who want to cover up a C-section or other scar. Write, "The High Rise front cut" in your suit notes to receive this cut.

High Rise Front

The Scoop front rise comes with our Micro/Scoop cut. Perfect for athletes with a very low body fat percentage (<8% BF), or who prefer a very revealing look on stage.

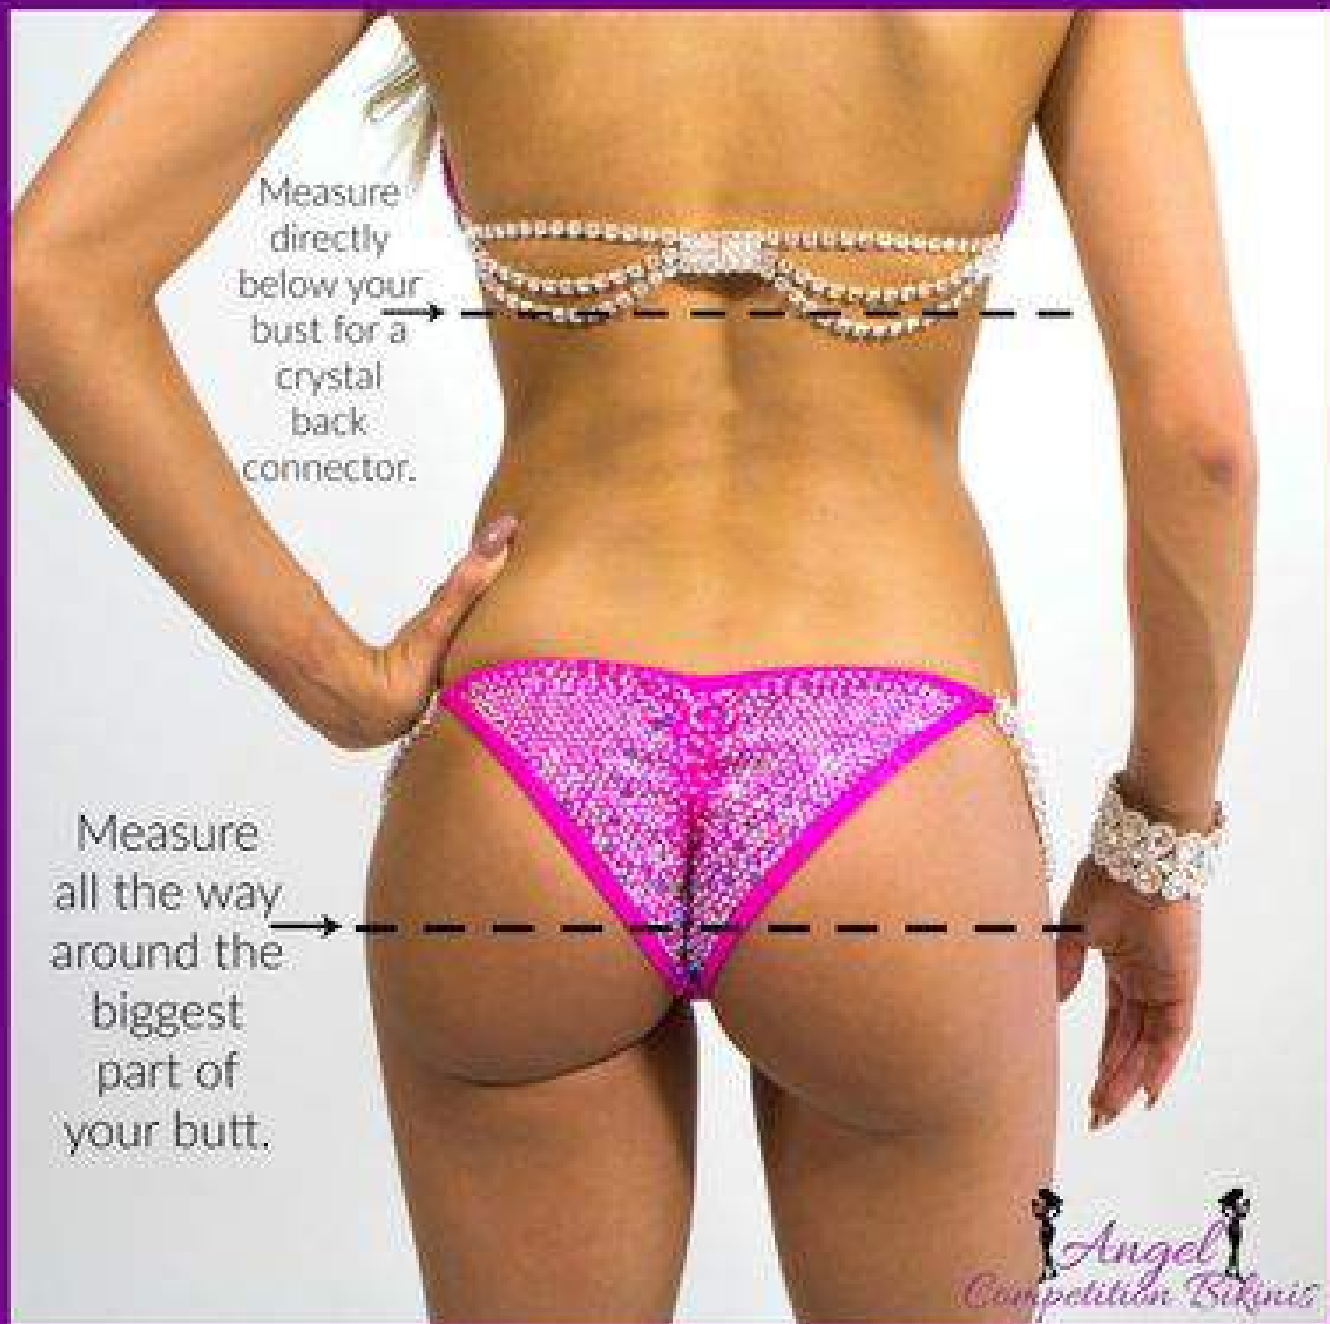

Scoop Front

Measuring for your Suit

To make your suit we need the measurement around the biggest part of your butt/glutes. Click here to watch a video on how to measure for your Angel Competition Bikini. This is not the measurement of where your hip bones are or where you wish to wear your suit. To put it simply; put your tape measure all the way around your butt and find the biggest measurement. This number normally falls between 32-39 inches. Your number could be a few inches smaller or larger than this normal based on your anatomy and stage readiness.

IFBB Bikini Pro Jenn Caban measuring a Diamond Doll athlete for her Angel Competition Bikini.

Where to Measure

If you added a crystal back connector to your suit, we will also need the measurement directly under your bust. Wrap the tape measure around your ribcage where your sports bra band would sit and measure.

Choosing the right top size

Click here to watch a video on how to choose your Angel Competition Bikinis top size. The size you choose is a personal preference of how you want the top to look on stage. Angel Competition Bikinis cups are rounded with pockets sewn in so you can add as much or as little push up as desired. We recommend using a tape measure on yourself to see how the cups will fit. Keep in mind that they are stretchy. If you are wanting to add a lot of stuffing to create the illusion of a fuller chest, choose a size medium.

Our Small is recommended for:

Petite athletes (5'3" and under) with natural breast size A and B.

Athletes with size C implants or smaller.

Medium

Our Medium is recommended for:

Athletes with natural breast size A, B, or C.

Athletes with size D or DD implants.

Our Large is recommended for:

- *Athletes with natural breast size D or DD
- *Athletes with size DDD implants or larger

Connectors

Every suit comes with 2 top connectors, 1 middle connector, and 2 bottom connectors.

Back Connector
(Optional)

You may want to take your physique into consideration when choosing connectors. Do not take this table too serious. Any physique and body type can wear any connectors. This is what we have found to work the best. The most important part of designing your suit is to choose what will make you feel the most confident on stage. True confidence shines through more than any connectors.

Fabric

Before choosing your fabric color consider the color your skin will be on stage. You want your suit to stand out on stage so pick a contrasting color from your skin. Karah's favorite fabrics are hologram eggplant purple, sequin cranberry and hologram dark blue. Lauren's favorite fabrics are hologram emerald, hologram black, and sequin teal. If a crystallized suit is not in your budget, we recommend ordering a sequin fabric to help stand out on stage. Be cautious when ordering a light color fabric and be prepared to get the darkest tan of your life if you want a light-colored fabric. Click here to order your free fabric samples. You can specify exactly what color you would like to see at no cost.

We recommend ordering your free fabric samples around 12 weeks out. If there are any specific colors you would like to see, write them in the box at checkout.

Practice Suits

Angel Competition Bikinis practice suits are great for competition prep! We create them with adjustable bottom ties for the perfect fit all prep long. Click here to shop our fun practice suits collection!

FAQ's

1. How do I know what back cut to get?

This depends on the size of your glutes and how revealing you want your suit to be. We recommend the Brazilian Cut for most bikini competitors. Refer to the chart on page 8

2. What kind of padding do you provide?

All of our suits have hidden pockets sewn into cups and come with a pair of removable molded inserts. This lets you add as little or as much padding as you would like. If you need more push up, write it in your suits notes and we will add some extra in complimentary.

3. Which bottoms are acceptable at my show?

We have made the Pro cut for NPC, NANBF, and WBFF athletes and have never had an issue with disqualification. If you are concerned; order the Brazilian or Moderate cut.

4. My show is in 18 weeks, is it too early to order a suit?
How do I know what size I should get?

No, it's never too early to order your suit. It is great motivation to have your suit to look at all the way through prep! We make the suits with high quality four way stretch nylon spandex which allows for normal weight fluctuation of competitors. We also leave 2 inches of fabric behind the back connectors that allows the suit to be brought in or taken out easily by your local seamstress or anyone that can sew.

5. I know I will lose a lot of weight before my show, how will sizing work?

We use your current glute measurement along with your anticipated weight loss until your show date to make your bottoms fit perfect. The anticipated weight loss does not need to be an exact number, a rough estimate will be fine.

6. If I know my stage measurements do you want those?

We only ask for your current measurements and anticipated weight loss. If you know what your stage measurement will be, put those measurements instead with anticipated weight loss of zero.

7. What is your return policy?

We start from scratch on every suit and make your suit based on your measurements. They are very custom fit to your body and your measurement therefore, we have a very strict no return policy. We guarantee that every suit we sell is brand new and do not accept returns. If you are not satisfied with your suit or if it does not fit you how you want please email info@acbikinis.com.

8. What if my suit doesn't fit me?

When you first receive your suit it should be too small unless you are at your stage weight. The bottoms should be pretty snug depending on where you hold most of your weight. As you get closer to your show it should start fitting better and fit perfect on your show day. If needed, there are alteration tabs in the back of the bottoms for a super easy fix by anyone who has any sewing experience. If you read the FAQs and measure correctly your suit will fit. If you are unsure if your suit is fitting correctly please take a front and back shot of you wearing the suit and send it to us at info@acbikinis.com We guarantee your suit to fit perfect and will remake it if it isn't perfect. However, it is your responsibility to order the correct back cut so please make sure you are ordering the correct one for your league.

9. Can I customize the bottom front cut of my bikini?

Yes, our suits are made to order, which means you can customize any part of them. Our typical front rise is 6.75 inches from the crotch on average. If you would like a higher more conservative cut for whatever reasons (c-section scars, stretch marks, etc.) we recommend our high rise front cut which has a 7.5 inches front rise.

10. How can I contact you?

If your answer is not answered here please e-mail info@acbikinis.com and we will get back to you in 2 business days or less.

11. Do you ship internationally?

Yes. If you are buying from anywhere besides the US we recommend ordering 12 weeks from when you need the suit. After we ship your suit and it leaves the US we have no control over it. Sometimes mail gets held in customs for weeks. Angel Competition Bikinis is not responsible for a delay in international orders due to customs.

12. I ordered my suit and decided not to compete, can I cancel my order?

No. Your suit is completely custom made to you. Please make sure you double check everything with your coach, and be confident with your fabric, connectors, and cut before you place your order.

13. I ordered my suit and decided I want to change the color, connectors, or cut, what are my options?

We do not allow any changes to be made to the original order. We strive to maintain the fastest turnaround time possible to ensure you get your suit as soon as possible. Please make sure you are confident with your color, cut, and connectors before you submit your order.

14. Can I order just bottoms or just a top?

Yes, please add the bikini you would like to your cart and in the notes section write exactly what you are wanting (ex. only bottoms) After you reach, checkout use the code SINGLEPIECE and it will discount it 50%.

If you still have questions, please do not hesitate to ask. Email info@acbikinis.com. Remember: the most important thing is to get the suit that YOU want to get. It's your day, you should pick a suit that will make you feel confident and one that you absolutely love.

Consult the color and cut with your coach, but the final decision should be made by you! You are the one that is going to rock your suit! Click here to start designing now!

I love my Angel Competition Bikini. The cut is perfect and so is the bling. ACB has awesome customer service and the ladies are quick to respond. I followed the suit buying guide when I ordered my suit and was questionable with the top size I bought. Once I got the suit I realized the top was too big. I contacted them and they have been very helpful assisting me to order a new top. If you have any questions about your purchase I highly suggest you contact them. They are very helpful, friendly, and quick to respond. Their suits are very high quality and even more beautiful on.

I loved my first suit I got from ACB. It arrived quickly and the fit was perfect. My second suit was the donut posing suit and was very cute, perfect for check in photos and posing class. My 3rd suit hasn't been worn yet. I just wish I knew they made the current pro cuts smaller than the one I bought the year before. Hopefully it works out and the suit will fit because it's a beautiful suit.

I absolutely loved my bikini suit!!! When I ordered I had planned to do a show that summer but I wasn't able to compete until later in the year. I hung my suit up in my closet to see everyday and used it as a motivator to train hard! Their customer service was great as they answered all my questions about suit color, fitting, etc. Definetly go through them if you want great quality suits for a great price.

I did have a few questions about the process, and they were so quick in answering any questions that I had and made sure I knew exactly what I was purchasing! The suits are stunning on and off stage, and the crystals/crystal patterns look amazing under stage lights. On top of everything their customer service is great- if you need suit adjustments or any changes they help you out and make your suit fit perfectly.

ACB is so easy to work with. I ordered a suit from here for my first NPC competition and the suit definitely delivered. It was beautiful! What I love is that they actually sent me videos of my suit being made, so it just made it even more exciting! 💎 the quality was great. I never felt like the sewing was going to rip or the straps were going to come undone.

Not only was the suit more than I could imagine (it really was like putting in a piece of fine jewelry) but it was nice to have the piece of mind knowing I had a high quality suit for competition day... because let's be honest, a suit breaking is the last thing you want to be worrying about back stage. Above and Beyond...that's how both Lauren and Karah approach their care, attention to detail, and customer service. I don't feel like a customer or client, and I attribute that to their level of support for us as their clients and sponsored athletes. It's absolutely ridiculous in the most amazing and inspiring way. They care! That's what matters...in everything they put forth, from their beautiful stage and posing suits to service....they go ABOVE and BEYOND! I couldn't be happier!

Just received my suit for my first ever competition! I got the 2 week turn around during the black Friday sale and it was here 2 weeks after I ordered it, which is crazy because I know they were super busy! The material is super good quality, the whole suit is perfect! They helped me with any and every question I had, it was a little confusing being a first time competitor! I am more than excited to wear one of their suits, and represent them on stage!

I cannot say enough good things about Angel Competition Bikinis. The quality and customer service is simply unmatched. Karah, Lauren & the team are the sweetest. I was sent updates and videos every step of the way while my suit was being made. It's absolutely gorgeous. I'm obsessed and can't wait to wear it on stage next year. This isn't the first suit I've had from them & I've noticed that they usually get suits out before the turnaround time that's given as well. As a coach I always recommend Angel Competition Bikinis to my girls and I'm proud to say that not only do I wear their suits to ...Read More

AMAZING! I am extremely picky when it comes to perfection, I will start with that lol. I started to compete and when I needed my second suit looking for something amazing this is the brand I found. I did a ton of research based on quality, reviews, price, customer service on many brands. I even zoomed in on pictures of girls suits trying to find something I didn't like, but couldn't with Angels. I finally knew they could make my dream suit down to a T! I got it and a cute note telling me good luck!! And I will tell you not a stone had glue showing or was out of line, the bottom cut was on poin...Read More

I just received my first suit from Angel Competition and already in love with them! Their customer service was great and kept me in the loop of the process. Their packaging is so cute and you can tell they care about their customers. I just purchased a suit to pose and practice in, but I will definitely be purchasing my next stage suit through them.

I can't stress enough about how impressed I am with this company! I am simply floored at how amazing they are. I ordered my suit on a Thursday, with 4 week turn around. By the following Tuesday I got a video of my suit being worked on. It arrived by that Friday. One week and one day after I ordered it!!! It looks incredible and I cannot wait to rock this on stage!!! The whole experience from start to finish has been great. Any suits I need in the future will be bought from ACB, And will highly recommend them to anyone and everyone who needs a suit!!!

The ladies at Angel Competition Bikinis are AH-mazing!!! Since I started competing, I've ordered every single one of my bikinis (from posing suits to competition suits) with them. In total, I've gotten two posing suits and five competition suits with them. I know it's a lot and let me just say that every single one has been breathtaking. The suits always turn out gorgeously and I can't wait to step on stage in them every time. I've noticed that they normally get their suits out before the estimated turn around time that you are given initially. Another thing I love is the packaging! They alwa ...Read More

I ordered a suit from Angel competition bikinis and the bottoms didn't quite fit. My show was fast approaching and I contacted them and they have a new bottom on the way as I'm typing this. I know they were extremely busy with nationals and making a ton of bikinis but that didn't stop them from making me a priority as well. This is my first show and they were very kind and courteous to me and I just want to show my gratitude and appreciation. Thank you very much!! And your suits are gorgeous!!

These bikinis are amazing. I'm so so so happy with the quality, the fabric is so thick and sturdy, yet stretchy & comfortable at the same time. They kept me totally in the loop, sending me updates & videos of my suit as they were making it. Which I found so exciting & motivating, knowing it was on its way. They are always there to answer any questions to help you find the right cut, colour & crystal combo to suit you. They even sent a free gift along with my suit! I can not recommend Angel Competition bikinis enough!! 💎💎

Thank you for making me the most beautiful bikini for my first NPC show! Everyone have me so many compliments and one other competitor said, "that has to be an angel. You can always tell!" Thank you for sending me updates during the entire process while it was being made, too! Your customer service is just the best!

Blown away by the wonderful ladies of Angel Competition Bikinis! Not only are the suits absolutely gorgeous, the level of customer care is insurmountable. Truly these ladies care about each competitor and the role they play in their special day This is my first competition. I didn't purchase the most expensive or a suit with the most crystals. But these ladies made me feel just as special as I imagine a pro who's been ordering for years from them feels. It was such a personal experience to receive the video update of my suit being made and the picture of the finished suit right before th ...Read More
