Please review the order confirmation email immediately to make sure your selections are accurate. Please email your suit specialist or customer service if anything looks wrong. All recommendations and selections are accepted on your own accord, even if a suit specialist completed the order for you.

Custom Top Size and Custom Bottom Cut Requests

Angel Competition Bikinis offers custom dimension top sizes and custom dimension bottom cuts for $50.00 each. If you are a new customer, we recommend first trying a standard top size or bottom cut first before deciding to order a custom size. All custom tops and bottoms are FINAL SALE and not eligible for an exchange or return of any kind.

Return, Refund and Exchange Policy for Posing and Competition Suit Orders.

We have an amazing team of designers, expert seamstresses that are dedicated to creating your suit exactly how you requested with a tried and true formula for athletes to get the perfect fit. Every suit is created based on the design and sizing information you select on the order form. We understand ordering mistakes can occur with design choice, fabric color, top size, and bottom cut. We want you to be 100% satisfied and confident when you walk on stage.

Due to the personal customization of each suit, Refunds are issued via store credit only for qualifying orders only. Qualifying orders may be returned for a 75% store credit refund sent via email. The total amount issued will not include the cost of the selected shipping method on the original order. All gift cards will be issued when we have received the original full suit or single piece order back, in an unaltered state, unworn condition, with no tanning residue, and all tags attached. (Ex. If a full suit was purchased on the original order, the full suit must be returned for store credit. Single pieces will not be accepted, unless the original order was only a single piece.) Customers are responsible for all return shipping costs. You must contact customerservice@acbikinis.com within 7 days of receiving your competition suit for approval and return instructions. Production Turnaround Policy For a Current or Past Order.

We recommend ordering your suit at least 12 weeks out from your show to make sure it is the perfect fit and complete any adjustments if necessary. Our current standard production turnaround time is 4 weeks. This means that your order will be ready to ship 28 days from the day you place your order. We also have a 2 week option available for $150.00. Expected shipping dates are subject to change if a Production Order Change has been requested. If your show date is less than 2 weeks, we recommend ordering from our Ships Tomorrow Suit Collection. If you need a competition suit in under 2 weeks, please see a suit specialist for approval. Any such order will be subject to approval first and a $200.00 production fee and Expedited Shipping Costs. Due to the severity of time constraints under 2 weeks, AC Bikinis is not able to guarantee on time delivery for new orders.

Your order will be made and shipped according to your selected production turnaround time and shipping method. It is your responsibility to select the correct options to ensure on time delivery for your show. All orders are processed in the order they are received. Customers will receive an email notification when their order moves to a new stage. Some orders may remain at a given production stage for several days. AC Bikinis is committed to making sure your order ships on time. However, orders can take up to 3 business days after your selected production turnaround time to be fulfilled. If your order has not shipped by the 3rd business day, you will receive a refund for the appropriate production turnaround fee and/or have your shipping method expedited at no additional cost.

For ships tomorrow, ships today, and posing practice suits, we recommend placing separate orders if you need your suit to ship immediately. If a ships today or ships tomorrow suit is included on an order with a custom build suit or item, it will ship according to the custom build suit or item production turnaround time that you select.

If your show is within 2 weeks or less, AC Bikinis is not able to guarantee on time delivery for new orders or item return for alteration requests. Customers may request and pay for production turnaround and shipping upgrades, but AC Bikinis is not responsible if a suit does not arrive on time. For specific questions or help deciding if you have enough time before your show, please email your suit specialist. If you do not have a suit specialist, please email customerservice@acbikinis.com.

Alterations to a completed suit

We are not able to alter an existing top size or bottom cut due to fabric and crystal limitations. We can however, change connectors, and loosen and tighten your glute measurement. Please email your suit specialist for recommendations and instructions on how to correct the fit of your suit. All Item Return for Alteration orders will be completed in 1-3 business days after the suit is returned back to our office location. Please note: we are not able to change anything about a suit that is not our brand. All return shipping to AC Bikinis is the customer's responsibility. Please make sure to select appropriate shipping at checkout to make sure you have your suit returned to you in time for your show.

Order changes after the order has been placed

All orders will be confirmed with a Confirmation Email. Please make sure to review this immediately for any potential errors. Your order can be processed into production within 24 hours of receiving your order. It is very important that you are 100% confident in the selections you submit to us as it is not easy for us to start over or make changes. However, if you would like to make a change to the design, color, size, or bottom cut, we can do a change for a $30.00 fee. Changes in design can result in an increase in price and require starting over on your suit production. This option does not apply to Ships Tomorrow Suits. Please note that every decision we make is with the athlete in mind. When we have to interrupt the workflow of one customer's suit, it can slow down our entire process for all customers. We will do our very best to fulfill your change request within your selected production turnaround time.

Please use this link to order a Production order Change: click here If the option you want is not listed, please email your suit specialist for approval. If you are changing your crystal design, we will send an invoice for the price difference. We will not proceed with your change until the invoice has been paid.

Domestic and International Shipping Policy and Changes after the order has been placed

We understand the importance of having your suit delivered in a timely fashion for your show. Again, we recommend ordering your suit at least 12 weeks out from your show. We do not recommend changing your shipping address or shipping method within 72 hours of your anticipated shipping date. Please be confident that both the shipping address and shipping method you chose is correct.

AC Bikinis does not recommend shipping to Air BnB's or Vacation Rentals. AC Bikinis is not responsible for lost or stolen packages if your address is considered a vacation rental. We will ship to hotel addresses for Monday through Friday delivery. For orders expected to ship on Friday, Next Day Air shipping is available only to hotels that accept Saturday Delivery. Any late deliveries requiring a package to be re-shipped to a customer's address, will be the responsibility of the customer to coordinate with the hotel.

Please take into consideration both the production turnaround time you selected on your order form and your shipping method you selected during checkout. AC Bikinis is not responsible for suits not delivered on time if you selected the wrong turnaround or shipping method.

In the event you would like to upgrade your shipping method, shipping address, or change your production turnaround time, please use this link: click here. For questions regarding your expected shipping date, please contact your suit specialist.

If you believe your suit was improperly delivered or lost in transit by the shipping company, please contact your suit specialist for a solution. We will work with you to resolve the issue. Our number one priority is to make sure you have your beautiful suit for your show. However, if your show is less than 72 hours, AC Bikinis will not be able to recover your suit in time for your show.

Placing Multiple Orders and adding items to original order

Each order is processed individually and the turnaround time is set according to the day the order was submitted. Due to a high number of orders we get on a daily basis, we unfortunately cannot guarantee that multiple separate orders can be shipped at the same time. This includes item additions to an existing order. To guarantee everything ships on the same day in the same package, please make only 1 order for all items. All items in one order will ship according to the suit production turnaround time.

Onsite Event Booth Sales

All transactions are FINAL SALE. If a suit purchase is needing a connector change or adjustment that is not available on site, it is the customer's responsibility to return the suit to AC Bikinis Headquarters and place a corresponding item return order. All shipping costs are the customer's responsibility. All Suit orders are eligible for the 365 day warranty policy. Please contact customerservice@acbikinis.com for return and ordering instructions.
