

TIGMI

LE MARAIS

Introducing Le Marais,
a contemporary rug
collection by TIGMI, born from a traditional Parisian mosaic tile that explores geometry, palette
and materiality.

With the Le Marais rug collection, Tigmi reinterprets the simple, yet bold geometry found within timber mosaic flooring design - referencing the past with natural materials that are presented in a fresh and modern way.

Exuding a quiet sophistication, Le Marais is an inspired collection offered in four refined palettes, weaving together the essence of the repetitive pattern. A base palette of wool contrasts with tonal pigments in silk.

Using luxurious materials of New Zealand Wool and silk, Le Marais is handwoven by expert family-based weavers in Nepal.

'Le Marais was inspired by a mosaic floor discovered in Paris many moons ago which has remained with me ever since. With this particular infinity pattern being such a recognisable and timeless design, I wanted to bring added depth by introducing silk in the mix to capture the light and add texture and dimensionality. Utilising a colourful, yet tonal palette, we created an expressive and playful collection designed to elevate any space, bringing a fresh modern approach to a traditional design.'

— Danielle McEwan, Founder & Creative Director of TIGMI

In ongoing partnership, this collection is certified by GoodWeave, a not-for-profit NGO dedicated to ending child labour in the rug industry.
