

TIGMI

Rilievo

An ode to the hard-edged
beauty of brutalist
forms, evoking the
modernist designs
of Carlo Scarpa,
where nature
and architecture
collide.

Captured
beautifully against the sublime
backdrop of Venice, Rilievo
tells a story of
provenance in returning to its origin of influence
and Scarpa's
birthplace.

“Scarpa has always served as an ultimate design influence, a master of detail, with a deeply sensitive connection to integrating nature with architecture. With Rilievo I wanted to capture a collection that was a worthy nod to that level of craftsmanship and artisanship – a timeless collection that captured the essence of our brand within our own unique visual language.”

— Danielle McEwan, Founder & Creative Director of Tigmi.

An exploration of geometrical forms and the interplay between positive and negative space created by shadows cast by relief elements, with contrasting details of lustrous New Zealand wool on a soft linen lining.

Made-to-order with family-based weavers in Nepal, the collection is produced in alignment with Tigmi's environmental ethics that emphasise a slow and considered approach to design.

Rilievo is created in partnership with GoodWeave, a non-profit organisation that aims to end child-labour in global supply chains.

Tigmi plant five trees for every rug sold, in collaboration with partners Reforest Now.
