ABOUT / You didn't know you needed it until you saw it at Newrybar Merchants – an eclectic collection of artwork and designer pieces housed together in an old wooden-clad dwelling which has been lovingly restored to retain its charm and character. With every room dedicated to a different designer, merchant or maker there is plenty to see and something for every taste and budget.

CONTRIBUTORS / Sibella Court – heavy weight interior stylist and tv presenter – has set up shop with an impressive collection of hardware and curiosities. Designer and local, Shannon Fricke (see our story on page 70) showcases her mix and-match Heart & Home bedlinen range. Fellow local, Jai Vasicek of Ahoy Trader fame and local ceramicists, Paterson + Steele offer one-off pieces as well as work from local and international artisans. It's hard not to be intoxicated by the sweet floral aromas when entering the building courtesy of Beautiflora. Artist, Diana Mill has set up a mini-studio where visitors can stop and watch her at work, painting large abstract canvases. Stationery supplier, Fate & Fortune, have a great range of greeting cards and tasteful stationery supplies. Miller Trading Group stock the very stylish Wolf & Maiden leather goods and Tigmi Trading offer an array of stunning Berber rugs – the kind of rug that completely makes a room.

Many other Australian labels including Pop & Scott and The Beach People are also represented making this a real one-stop shop and a definite stop if in the area.
