Welcome to our Living Collection

“Beautifully crafted furniture with curvaceous forms that creates a sense of balance and enduring style is our passion and commitment we bring to each and every piece.”

Since I began designing and producing furniture 25 years ago, my name and my furniture has become synonymous with curved design. Expanding upon this heritage with forward-thinking techniques and bold organic shapes we introduce the Living Collection; our latest range of furniture, which is held in stock with fast delivery, so that you can enjoy beautifully handmade furniture without the wait.

Produced with the same defining principles as all Tom Schneider furniture, the Living Collection has it all: high quality materials shaped by superior craftsmen and perfectly curved designs that are ideal for flexible living, all with a high street price tag and held in stock.

Our designer heritage and unique production methods mean the quality of our furniture is unrivalled on the high street and we're excited to show off the modern designs. We played with nature-inspired, organic shapes and sumptuous woods to create a wide range of occasional tables and desks all perfectly formed in a choice of FSC certified walnut or oak.

So we invite you to bring a touch of nature to your decor with our Living Collection all thoughtfully designed to give your home an individual look, full of personality and style.
