Featured Story

I AM KNYAW has been supporting 10 families in a remote area by providing essential supplies like rice and oil. To enhance our impact, we acquired a truck, crucial for efficiently transporting aid to conflict-affected regions. Recently, the truck was used in a successful rescue mission, evacuating two wounded victims from Kler Lwee Htu in Ler Doh district, ensuring their safe transport for urgent medical treatment.

Co-directors Sha Kerpaw Wah and Honey Moon returned to Kawthoolei, delivering non-lethal aid to frontline personnel. The aid package, including 600 bottles of chili paste and exclusive I AM KNYAW-branded t-shirts, emphasized our commitment to those on the frontlines. Additionally, we distributed personal hygiene items and conducted insightful interviews with parents of I AM KNYAW-supported students, furthering our dedication to community welfare.

Two victims that survived because of our new truck.

STUDIO GRAND OPENING & SCHOOL DONATION

A heartfelt thank you to our dear friend and supporter, Star2, for his continuous generosity. Through his support, we've opened a studio in our Thailand office to serve the community. He also recently went to a nearby school and donated goods and supplies to the children in need. We appreciate all you do and look forward to the continued growth of our partnership.

Program Updates:

Our involvement goes beyond merely ensuring access to education; In collaboration with Thoo Mweh Khee School, we facilitate the enrollment process, ensuring that students from Mutraw and Kler Lwee Htu areas have the necessary resources to pursue their education. This includes providing school supplies, uniforms, and any additional materials required for their academic journey.

As we continue to support students in their educational pursuits, our ultimate goal is to empower them to overcome challenges and contribute positively to their communities. We aim to instill a sense of resilience, determination, and hope in the hearts and minds of these students from the Mutraw and Kler Lwee Htu areas attending Thoo Mweh Khee School.
