6. Interlock Building Products can deliver to site if required and a delivery fee will apply. Interlock Building Products will advise and obtain acceptance of the delivery fee prior to delivery.

Our Philosophy

We understand that time is money. Our approach, as your Building Products partner, is to work along side you to ensure you have competitively priced products that are on site when you need them. This means all your team can keep working instead of chasing products.

The most expensive products are those that does not work or takes too much time, and hence labour, when you are using them. We are constantly talking to our suppliers about innovative products that improves the efficiency of the building process. We will constantly be supplying these types of products to our builders.

As your Building Products partner, we provide a staged take off service. By working alongside you and your team, we are across the different stages of your projects and can deliver building products as you need them.

Delivery Service

Interlock Building Products provides a delivery service. The price of delivery is dependent upon the range and type of products purchased and delivery location. Simply let us know your order and delivery requirements and we will inform you the delivery charge for each order.
