FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 2020 – Samsung Galaxy Tab Active Pro Cradles are Available Now at Strike

Brisbane, May 14, 2020 – Strike Group, the automotive technology leader in delivering hands-free solutions, releases the latest tablet holder for the Samsung Galaxy Tab Active Pro.

The Samsung Galaxy Tab Active Pro is the latest business-optimized rugged tablet device that ensures productivity for enterprise workforces wherever they go. With its 10.1 WUXGA Display, users can view data with clarity in tough work conditions or while on the move. Large format and high-resolution content are more accessible with its improved display.

Additionally, the Samsung Galaxy Tab Active Pro is protected with Samsung Knox to secure data and files with defence-grade security. The Galaxy Tab Active Pro is designed with the security of a PC and mobility of a rugged device.

“Strike continues to provide secure and fast charging tablet holders for rugged tablets in the market like the Samsung Tab Active Pro. Our Strike Alpha Cradles are engineered to protect your device even in challenging environments,” says Chris Ryan, the CEO of Strike Group.

The Strike Alpha Samsung Galaxy Tab Active Pro tablet mount is equipped with enterprise-grade charging capability that can power your device with 3 amps of charge while on the road or while mounted. The Strike Alpha Samsung Tab Active Pro vehicle mount is also engineered to withstand 25g in the event of an accident that’s suitable for industries including warehousing, public safety, transportation and more.

The Strike Alpha Samsung Galaxy Tab Active Pro tablet cradle is built with an internal passive antenna that amplifies mobile signal once connected with a reputable external antenna. The Samsung Tab Active Pro tablet holder can gain up to 7.0 dBi in low-signal areas with a Strike antenna.

Furthermore, the Strike Alpha Samsung Galaxy Tab Active Pro tablet mount comes in variants: PRO-install, DIY, with NFC extender, and lockable versions for added safety. The lockable feature is designed to deter theft, especially in public areas.

The Strike Alpha Samsung Galaxy Tab Active Pro Car Cradle is now available. Visit Strike’s website to learn more: <https://www.strike.com.au/Latest-Alpha-Cradles/samsung-galaxy-tab-active-pro-holders>
