FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 2019 – Strike Develops Samsung Galaxy S10e, S10 and S10+ Car Phone Holders

Brisbane, February 20, 2019 – Strike is proud to introduce a series of high-grade phone specific car phone holders for Samsung’s latest flagship smartphones: The Galaxy S10e, Galaxy S10 and Galaxy S10+.

The Samsung Galaxy S10e, S10 and Samsung Galaxy S10 Plus are packed with upgrades and new features and have different designs compared to its predecessor. The new Samsung units sport a Snapdragon 855 chipset for fast and smooth performance. They have also upgraded their storage with the Samsung Galaxy S10 Plus offering the biggest yet with 1TB of internal space.

The features and build of the Samsung S10e, S10 and Samsung S10+ make them expedient smartphones for both work and entertainment. The significant internal storage enables users to have a flexible tool that can carry data and files used in the office, as well as personal photos, music, videos, and apps.

Strike Alpha Samsung Galaxy S10e, S10 and S10 Plus car phone holders deliver an enhanced user experience, especially on vehicles. Enjoy the key features of these new Samsung handsets without distracting from the road. These Samsung car cradles come with efficient built-in fast chargers to extend the user’s phone battery during long drives.

“Strike strives to continuously innovate and develop technology to boost the quality of experience of our users and further maximise the benefit of their devices like the Samsung S10e, S10 and S10+,” says Chris Ryan, CEO of Strike Group.

Strike Alpha Samsung Galaxy S10e, S10 and S10 Plus car mobile phone holders are durable. They are engineered to 25g crash standards. They also have a passive internal antenna which allows users to boost their mobile signal by connecting to a reputable external antenna.

The Samsung S10e, S10 and S10 Plus car cradles by Strike feature wireless charging capability for efficient charging whilst on the road. Wireless charging phone holders allow users to charge their S10e, S10 or S10+ automatically when placed on the mount. The Strike Alpha Samsung phone holders can be professionally installed, or a do-it-yourself version is available.
