WINEMAKERS COMMENTS

Shiraz and McLaren Vale are synonymous, the region's climate and soils naturally enabling rich, flavoursome expressions of this classic variety.

Fruit is sourced from the two DOWIE DOOLE Estate Vineyards, with each vineyard contributing unique characters to the finished wine. The cool slopes and sandy soils of Blewitt Springs offer lighter blue fruits and a fine tannin line. The richer soils and Mediterranean climate of Tatachilla gifts the wine with darker fruit and richness.

Combined, the two terroirs of DOWIE DOOLE each complement one another to craft a balanced wine showcasing the best hallmarks of McLaren Vale Shiraz. The subtle use of oak and 18 months of maturation adds lift and completes the palate structure.
