

ADDITIONAL Sales Representatives

BARNES
& NOBLE

In addition to the two people listed above, there are a few other folks that will be working on your book. These people are behind the scenes working to get your book into major retailers like Barnes & Noble, Books-a-Million, Target, Walgreen, CVS, and grocery store chains. You will likely not hear from these sales reps, but not to worry, they are working diligently for you!

Another group of people working on your book are our field sales reps. They are the ones going door-to-door in your local area selling your book face-to-face with retailers. These reps are on a tight schedule, so we cannot guarantee when they'll be in your neighborhood and you won't hear from them, but again, not to worry! They are working hard to make sure every stone is turned.
