

Overcharged No More: EuroHomeDirect Offers Price-Matched European Products To Singaporean Market

SINGAPORE - July 24th, 2018 - Never again will Singaporeans have to pay more than Europeans for exquisite design products. EuroHomeDirect, the leading Singaporean one-stop home renovation online retailer for European appliances, sanitary wares, furniture and smart home accessories, has made it its mission to price-match consumer products across continents.

With the slogan "The best or nothing!", EuroHomedirect has curated a selection of the finest, most luxurious products from major high-end European brands, sourcing them directly from experienced partners that are deeply knowledgeable in all things interior design. Viewing home renovations as an art, a passion and a mission, EuroHomeDirect offers smart solutions that help upgrade customers' quality of life, through beautifying their everyday surroundings.

Breaking down geographical barriers, and upholding the belief that all consumers are entitled to being able to purchase goods at the same price level, regardless of their location, EuroHomeDirect has managed to be able to offer its product range at a similar price range as to that in their countries' of origin.

As such, the company affords its clients with the opportunity to complete their home renovations projects within their pre-set budget - yet without cutting back on the quality of the products they invest in to update their homes.

"We strive to offer customers worldwide affordable and fast access to the best European luxury appliances, sanitary and furniture brands, because we believe no one should need to pay more just because he lives on another continent," said Mr. Matthias Mayer, EuroHomeDirect media representative.
