Season

Leading into the 2021 vintage saw fairly ideal growing conditions that were warm and dry. Early February and January saw a cooling off and significant rain events that slowed down ripening and retained natural acidity. The only downfall with these conditions was the added pressure in the vineyards to control potential fruit split and disease. Fortunately our vineyards were unaffected and the fruit coming in was pristine.

Winemaking

Machine harvesting during the cool of the night in order to maintain optimal fruit integrity. The grapes are destemmed, crushed and pressed under cool gentle conditions.
