SPOTLIGHT

PROMISE RINGS

It looks like a plain metal band, but an "inner message" is nestled inside, leaving an impression on the wearer's finger after the ring is taken off. South Korean designer Yoon Jungyun, who offers these sterling silver and 14k gold bands, can craft the rings to include the words "always," "marry me," or any script of your choice. (starting at $120, www.yoonjungyun.com)

All The Rage

Stuff we love right now

Good Impressions

Touchscreen on the outside, buttons on the inside. Access full HTML-based sites and services on the slim Samsung Impression, now available through AT&T. It's the nation's first commercially available handset to feature an "active-matrix organic light-emitting diode" display. Translation: the brightest, clearest screen around. ($199.99, www.wireless.att.com)

Vroom, Vroom

After seven years, the new Chevrolet Camaro is back in dealer showrooms. The 2010 four-passenger, front-engine sports coupe was designed by the Seoul-reared, Art Center-schooled Sangyup Lee, whose resume includes Pininfarina and Porsche. (starting at $23,040, www.chevrolet.com/alinewcamaro)

Tango Mango

Red Mango's new nonfat, citrusy flavor, the Tangomonium, has a mysterious moniker but one blogger reports: it's "like sunny Delight, made into a creamicle, pureed into fro-yo." Delish. (starting at $3.25, www.redmangousa.com)

INCREASE YOUR BUST

Want bigger melons? This bust serum, which prevents tissue from sagging and improves firmness, can bump up your rack by one full cup. Apply daily. ($49, www.taika.com)

HER CUP RUNNETH OVER

Emily Lau's The Little Bra Company offers underpinnings for petite, smaller-chested femmes. Ranging in sizes 28 to 36, the brassieres, which include the lace, deep-plunge "Lucia" and coquettish, smooth-cupped "Yvonne," are cut to offer comfort, a better fit, and a bit of cleavage, too. (starting at $50, www.thelittlebra.com)
