Support Women-owned Businesses for Women's History Month

By Julia McNicol

March is Women's History Month, where we recognize and honor women in our communities along with those who have made an impact in history. studio1851 values supporting small business and women creators. We strive to bring Women-owned products into our store to spread awareness and support talented women in the industry. Our bath and body collection is flourishing and we are excited to share some of our new products. Our most recent arrival are our new sugar scrubs from Butter Depot. We have three scents: Vanilla Ice, Sea Salt + Mango, and Coconut using all-natural and ethically sourced ingredients. These handmade whipped scrubs are not only from a Women-owned business but were also our first purchase in support of Black-owned businesses!

We carry five fragrances of body butters from Old Whaling Co. that are inspired by the sea. These gentle body butters melt into the skin leaving it clean, moisturized, and smelling amazing!

Spotlight Artist: Casey Salvatore

Sophomore Fashion Merchandising and Business major, Casey Salvatore, is the owner of Hippie Hideaway and our newest Spotlight Artist! She crafts sustainable unique crocheted clothes and accessories. Ex fashion design major says, "I have always loved crocheting and knitting; I have been doing this since I was young and I have decided to use what I love and share that with others!" Shop her Collection & more in our store or online at www.studio1851lasell.com!

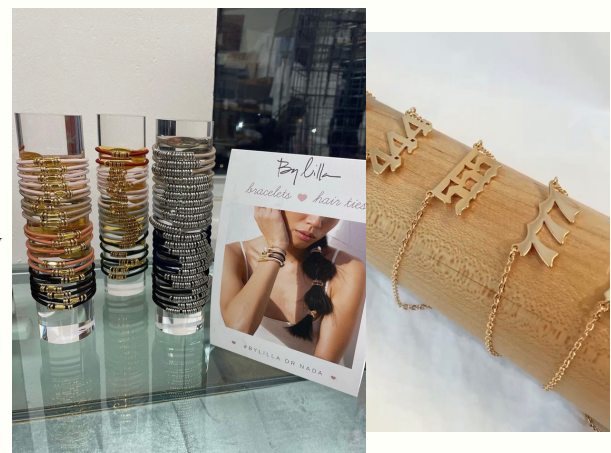

Women-Owned Jewelry

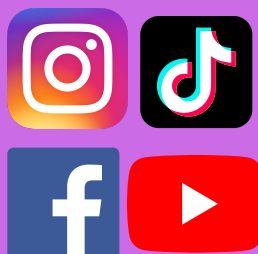

We have two new women-owned jewelry products hitting our shelves and our online store this month! Our Angel Number necklaces are 14k Gold filled over a brass chain and will be your new everyday staple. This modern trendy necklace is also handmade in the USA. We also began carrying a gorgeous selection handmade bracelets from Love Is Project. Purchasing these bracelets helps empower and support female artisans all over the world by advocating for fair wages, education, healthcare, and more.

Bylilla is a women-owned and operated business that has created stylish hair accessories with our favorite hair-tie bracelets. We carry three styles in many different colors with gold and silver hardware! If you are looking for the perfect addition to add to any outfit check out our unique glass earrings from Women of the Cloud Forest! We have many stunning designs that you can feel good about purchasing because these are also fair trade! With any purchase from studio1851, our hilarious cards from Offensive + Delightful are a must and perfect for any occasion!
