

February Newsletter

studio1851

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Written by Julia McNicol and
Madison Cormier

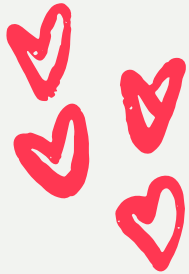

Spread Love With studio1851

The Love Collection is finally here and lives both in store and on our website. We have three new t-shirts we can't wait for you to shop & style! In this collection we have gourmet chocolate heart lollipops, perfect for someone special or to treat yourself! We have women's and men's crew socks, mugs, and the cutest jewelry. Shop our Love Collection before it's gone at www.studio1851lasell.com !

L LASELL UNIVERSITY

WHAT'S IN THIS MONTH'S ISSUE:

- Black History Month
- Valentine's Day
- Spotlight Artist

At studio1851, we are committed to educating ourselves & our community. We want to do better. In honor of Black History Month, we will be continuing our efforts to promote local Black-owned businesses in the month of February and all year long.

On our Instagram you will find local Black-owned businesses highlighted on our story for "Feature Fridays". Follow us @studio1851lasell to learn more!

This is a movement, not a moment
#BlackLives Matter

photo by Amelia Capron

Spotlight Artists

MEKENZIE BARBOSA

Mekenzie is a sophomore Fashion Design student and the owner of Sapphire Moon. This brand features a collection of handmade shoulder bags. Each bag is handcrafted with a combination of unique prints and textures. Mekenzie says, "I was inspired to create these shoulder bags during the planning of my sister's Sweet 16 Party. I realized then that my bags were more than just a shoulder bag, they are everything I admire about fashion!"

TAMARA NEYRA

Since joining studio1851 as a Spotlight Artist in December, Tamara has now expanded her collection and added a stunning selection of fun rings and new necklaces!

Are you interested in becoming a Spotlight Artist? Apply now under the Spotlight Artist tab on our website!

www.studio1851lasell.com

Located in the Winslow Academic Center next to the Glow Lounge or shop online 24/7 at www.studio1851lasell.com

Follow us:
@studio1851lasell

