Searching Standards for Federal Courts:

District Courts indexed by defendant, plaintiff, and by case number. Bankruptcy Courts usually index by debtor and case number. Most case files created prior to 1999 were maintained in paper format only. Since 2006, all cases are filed electronically. Paper case files may be stored at the courthouse or forwarded to a designated Federal Records Center (see <http://archives.gov/frc>), the timeframe determined by the Court. These case files may be obtained via the Court or directly from the FRC.

Case data may be viewed PACER, the online public access program. An account is required, the fee is $.10 per page; there is no fee if a usage does not exceed $15.00 in a quarter. For details about PACER see the Appendix or go to <https://www.pacer.gov> or call 800-676-6856.

The copy fee is $.50; $.10 if electronic document is printed from terminal. Certification fee is $11.00 per document and $21.00 for exemplification, if available. If a case is still available from the individual federal court, the search fee is $30.00. If the case is at the Archives, the case can be ordered from the court. The fee to retrieve a paper file is $64.00 for the first box and $39.00 ea add'l box. Also, the public can order copies direct online from the National Archives. Copies can be delivered by mail, fax, or email. See more information, including fees, at www.archives.gov/research/court-records/.55.

The Supreme Court

Details on the Court Structure

The District Court Clerk maintains the official court record for felony or gross misdemeanor criminal, divorce, juvenile, probate, adoption, paternity, child support, and civil court cases in excess of $10,500. Probate is handled by the District Courts, as are divorce records. The judges also hear appeals from Justice and Municipal Court cases.

The Justice Courts are generally named for the township of jurisdiction. Due to their small populations, some townships no longer have Justice Courts. The Justice Courts handle misdemeanor crime and traffic matters, small claims disputes, evictions, and other civil matters less than $10,000, the maximum amount for Small Claims increased from $5,000 to $7,500 in July 2011. The Justices of the Peace also preside over felony and gross misdemeanor arraignments and conduct preliminary hearings to determine if sufficient evidence exists to hold criminals for trial at District Court.

The Municipal Courts manage cases involving violations of traffic and misdemeanor ordinances that occur within the city limits of incorporated municipalities. Generally they do not oversee civil matters.

Record Searching Facts You Need to Know

Fees and Record Searching Tips

The search fee and the copy fee for records at the District Court (and not Justice Court) are set by statute at $.50 per record. This fee was effective October 1, 2013. The previous fee was $1.00 per record or copy.

Many Nevada Justice Courts are small and hold few records. Their hours of operation vary widely and contact is difficult. It is recommended that requesters call ahead for information prior to submitting a written request or attempting an in person retrieval. Fees will vary, but approx. 70% of the Justice Courts charge $1.00 per name per year to do a name search.

Online Access is Limited

Some Nevada courts have internal online computer systems, but only Clark and Washoe counties offer online access to the public. A state-sponsored court automation system is being implemented.

There is an online site to search Appellate Case information from their Management System. See <http://caseinfo.nvsupremecourt.us/public/publicActorSearch.do>.

Nevada Recording Offices

- Organization: 16 counties and one independent city; 17 recording offices. The recording officer is the County Recorder. Nye County has 2 locations. Carson City has a separate filing office. Nevada is entirely in the Pacific Time Zone (PST).
- Types of Documents Recorded: Examples of recorded documents are Deeds, Mortgages, Liens (including state and fed tax), Leases, Mining Claim Records and a variety of property documents including all filed land survey maps. Vital records include Births, Deaths, and Marriage Certificates.
- Searching Real estate Records: Most counties will not provide real estate searches. Real estate related copies cost $1.00 per page and certification fee is $4.00 per document.
- Searching UCC Records: Financing statements are filed at the state level except for real estate related collateral which are filed with the County Recorder. However, prior to July, 2001, consumer goods and farm collateral were also filed at the County Recorder and these older records can be searched there, and most offices will still perform the search, usually $40.00 to $60.00 per debtor.
- Searching Tax Lien Records: Federal tax liens on personal property of businesses are filed with the Secretary of State. Federal tax liens on personal property of individuals are filed with the County Recorder. Although not called state tax liens, employment withholding judgments have the same effect and are filed with the County Recorder. Some, not all, counties provide tax lien searches.
- Online Access: There is no statewide access, but most counties provide access to searchable online databases of recorded documents and/or property tax data.
