

Negru de Purcari 2018

Aged Dry, Red Wine

Vinification:

*"This wine is like an iron fist,
dressed in a velvet glove!"*

Federico Giotto,
Italian wine expert

55% Cabernet Sauvignon

40% Saperavi

5% Rară Neagră

Hand Harvested

Oaked in French barrels for 18 months

Product Information:

Purcari is putting Moldova on the world wine map with this famous noble blend ordered by the Royals of Europe for years. A complex conversation wine that is serious but approachable, elegant but ripe for drinking tonight while the rest of the case reaches its peak in the cellar.

Wine Tasting:

Noble with a rich structure and a generous bouquet, it truly has a regal palate. Intense ruby color with garnet hue. This wine seduces with a velvety taste, balanced with oak and fruit tones. The bouquet surprises with fine shades of plums, chocolate, figs and develops, in time, revealing the fine aromas of vanilla and saffron. Negru de Purcari fascinates with a noble and magnificent taste, its value continuously increasing each year.

Recommended serving temperature: +18 ... +20 °C

Wine Analytics:

Alcohol: 14,0%

Total acidity: 5,4 g/dm³

Volatile acidity: 0,54 g/dm³

Total SO₂: 90 mg/dm³

Total sugars: 3,6 g/dm³

Awards:

Negru de Purcari 2017

Double Gold Medal (China Wine and Spirits Awards 2020)

Gold Medal (Challenge International du Vin, Bordeaux 2020)

Chateau Purcari founded in 1827 is Moldova's most celebrated winery. Our wines have been served to the Royal Courts of Europe for over 150 years. Its first gold medal was awarded in 1878 at the World Exhibition in Paris, when French experts were profoundly impressed by the rich flavor and intense color of Negru de Purcari, which surpassed even Bordeaux wines. Along time, Purcari wines won more than 300 medals at the most prestigious international competitions like Decanter, Concours Mondial de Bruxelles, Challenge International du Vin, as well as the recognition of the Royal House of Great Britain. Champion - Grand Gold Medal (Galicia Vitis, Poland 2019)

