

Shiraz de Purcari

Dry, Red Wine

Vinification:

100% Shiraz

Traditional fermentation with an innovative technology.

Matured in French oak barrels for 1 year.

Product Information:

An Enigma in name and explosion in taste. That is Shiraz by Purcari. Legend has it that the variety's name is derived from Iran, its origin from France, and its fame- from Australia.

Domesticated in the vineyards of southern Moldova, the spiciest grape variety has spawned a limited-edition wine.

Wine Tasting:

Shiraz de Purcari is a dry and savory wine, tasting of overripe cherries and berries. Its lively character spills over into an aftertaste of blackcurrant and blueberry. Matured in oak barrels, Shiraz de Purcari has acquired flavors of coffee, cinnamon, and pink pepper. A wine with personality and elegant tannins.

Association with food:

Traditional meat dishes, game, rost beef, pork dishes

Recommended serving temperature: +16... +18 °C
