

Strong boxers Product description and info

Absorbency: 90 ml

Materials: 69% Polyester, 16% Nylon, 7.5% Viscose, 4.5% Spandex, 3% Rubber

Care/washing: We recommend washing the panties at 60 degrees and letting them air dry, thereby eliminating any possible bacteria. Avoid bleach, ironing and tumble dryers.

Product description: Boxer shorts for men with urinary incontinence.

Are you looking for a reliable and comfortable solution to incontinence? These boxers are the ultimate combination of comfort, functionality and style.

These cutting-edge men's boxers have been created with a focus on comfort, discretion and efficiency to help men maintain both their freedom and confidence.

Unmatched comfort:

Our boxer shorts are made from soft, breathable and stretchy materials that ensure ultimate comfort all day.

They are designed to fit perfectly and follow the body's natural movements, providing a comfortable fit without constriction or irritation. You'll almost forget you're wearing them!

Discretion without compromise:

We understand the importance of discretion when it comes to incontinence products. Our boxer shorts are designed with a thin, waterproof protective membrane that effectively holds leaks in place and prevents unwanted seepage. The discreet design allows you to feel safe and confident wherever you are.

Effective protection all day long:

Our boxer shorts are equipped with a built-in absorbent pad that has been specially developed to absorb and trap liquids. This innovative technology ensures that you have the necessary protection throughout the day.

Whether you experience mild drips or more intense incontinence, our boxer shorts can handle it all.

Stylish and modern design:

We believe that incontinence products do not need to compromise on style and aesthetics. Our boxer shorts are designed with a modern and timeless aesthetic that fits the modern man perfectly without compromising on functionality.

Regain your freedom and confidence:

Our boxer shorts are more than just an incontinence product – they are a tool to regain your freedom and confidence. By providing you with the necessary protection and comfort, you can focus on living your life to the fullest without worries. Whether you are at work, training or socializing, our boxer shorts will be your reliable partner. Recommended for active use. Not bedridden or sleeping.
