

ChatterVox for Trade Shows

The most popular ChatterVox for trade shows is the Original ChatterVox Complete Plus.

How do I get noticed at the next trade show? You have spent a fortune on your booth, graphics, furnishings, staffing, literature, what is one thing that all trade shows have in common? They are all noisy. Nothing attracts a crowd like a crowd. With ChatterVox, your in-booth presentation will be heard above the noise and naturally draws others to your booth.

Why does our company participate in so many trade shows? Because we sell an amazing number of ChatterVox systems at trade shows! People can hear you from all around, and are naturally drawn to the beautiful amplified sound. The quality of sound of ChatterVox amplifiers and high quality microphones result in beautiful tonality. It's your voice, just louder. There is no comparing ChatterVox systems to the old days of the harsh sounding bull horn. At trade shows it's quite common for people staffing the surrounding booths to come over and purchase their own ChatterVox when they see how effective they are in actual use at the trade show. And because of their design, everyone in your booth can be wearing a ChatterVox and they will not interfere with each other.
