“I PICTURED A GIRL WHO MADE EVERY MOMENT, EVERYTHING SHE TOUCHED, AND EVERYONE AROUND HER FEEL LIGHTER AND SWEETER.”

—Rainbow Rowell

Opposite and this page, below right: As if conjured from clouds, artist Charissa Owens’s hand-moulded botanicals come alive against a soft azure background. Lifelike birds appear to flit from branch to branch between abundant blossoms. Beside this mesmerizing display, lounge serenely in a room dressed in Schumacher textured wallpaper, with a cozy chair upholstered in an ivory fabric from the company. Rest against a ruffled pillow by DesignerModHome as flickering candlelight, thanks to a Southern Bungalow Blue and White Chinoiserie Lidded Container, imbues the setting in a soft glow.

Above: Thoughtful sentiments flow from heart to paper and appear beautifully upon Dogwood Hill Joie Des Fleurs patterned stationery. Sip a favorite blend of tea from a coordinating teacup as words come to mind.
