Worlds Apart

Fine Bearded Iris Selections For 2024

Greetings!

Welcome to the 2024 edition of Sutton's Iris Garden catalog. This year we are both pleased and honored once again to be able to introduce quality iris from our breeding program with world renowned hybridizers, Anton Megó, Gary Slagle and Bill Tyson. Incredible introductions this year, striking colors, form and patterns incorporated into high quality and vigorous iris hybrids.

We have added a gift shop to our online store, look for iris related gift ideas as the year progresses. More bearded iris are now listed online at www.suttoniris.com.

Our seedling program continues to move forward with many seedlings exhibiting new patterns and multi-colored flowers as well as solid rebloom habits. Increasingly better form and heavy ruffling is becoming common place in the seedling beds. Fall and summer rebloomers are popping up with increasing regularity in the reselect beds and new seedling beds. Space age iris with consistent appendages, better form and great color are showing up with much more regularity too.

As always thank you to our loyal customers; you are greatly appreciated and never taken for granted. Welcome to those of you who are receiving this catalog for the first time! Mike, Connie, Brandon, Chelsea, Shelby (Meek) and Andrew

Bright

Catch A Clue

Catch A Clue (M. Sutton '24) SDB 13" E Deep and rich colors! Red purple standards and dark red purple falls are contrasted nicely by the yellow markings below the yellow beards. 3 buds and great bloom habits with form that isn't quite as wide as we like but is more than made up for by the color, especially in clumps!..$20

Run
Amok

Run Amok (M. Sutton '24) SDB 13" E Vivid yellow-orange standards and falls are accentuated by an erratic brownish orange thumbprint below the orange beards. The thumbprint can be faint or very strong, usually being more faint at the beginning of the bloom season and darker towards the end, exactly the opposite of normal. Whether it is exhibiting the faint or strong thumbprint it is still a glowing orangish dwarf that makes bright eye-catching clumps! 3 buds, sweet scent, vigorous growth and bloom habits.. $20

Deep
Twilight

Deep Twilight (M. Sutton '24) SDB 11" E Selected for introduction immediately after its maiden bloom season. Very dark violet all over with amazing wide and ruffled form. Grayed orange beards appear more as a dark tangerine color and add just the right amount of color. 3 to 4 buds per stalk with solid growth and bloom habits leading to stunning clumps...$20

Luck Of The Irish (M. Sutton '24) SDB 12" E Very different coloring with basically white standards that are randomly marked yellow at the edges and flushed purple up the midribs. White falls are veined violet with pea green highlights around the veining and faint chartreuse markings at the edges giving off an overall green colored feel. 4 buds with healthy growth and bloom habits plus a nice but faint sweet scent..$20

Eio (M. Sutton '24) SDB 13" E Great contrast and color! Another one named by our youngest granddaughter who was learning the Old MacDonald song at the time. Technically a violet iris but it sure gives off a dark purple impression with bright yellow-orange beards. 4 to 5 buds per stalk, very strong grower and bloomer with repeat bloom a month after the first blooms open in spring..$20

How To Grow Iris

Bearded iris are about the easiest of garden plants to grow and will give good results with a minimum of care, but like all plants, the better you care for them the better they perform. The following instructions are easy to follow and should lead to awesome iris blooms year after year.

WHEN TO PLANT

Bearded iris should be planted in July, August or September. It's important that the roots get established before the end of your growing season. Plant your iris at least six (6) weeks before your first frost.

LOCATION

Bearded iris like the sun! A half day of sun will be fine for most areas but a full day of sun is best. Make sure to provide the iris with good drainage. Raised beds or slope plantings are ideal places to plant iris.

SOIL PREPARATION

Bearded iris do great in most well drained garden soils. If you have heavy soil, adding humus, coarse sand or rice hulls will help. Creating raised beds is the easiest way to make sure they have proper drainage.

PLANTING DEPTH

Your iris should be planted so the tops of the rhizomes are slightly exposed and the roots are spread out facing downwards in the soil. In very hot climates, covering the rhizome with about an inch of soil is advisable. Pack the soil firmly around the rhizome and water in. A common mistake is planting the iris too deep. Make sure that you do not have any soil covering the green part of the fans (leaves). To avoid rot keep at least 2" around the base of the fan (leaves) clear of decorative woodbark.

CULTURE

Newly planted iris need moisture to encourage root growth; however, over-watering can cause rot. After the new iris have been planted, water immediately. Deep watering at long intervals is better than more frequent shallow waterings. Once established, iris normally don't need to be watered except in arid areas. Over-watering is a common error and can lead to disease. Reblooming iris need a touch more water than spring only bloomers. If reblooming iris do not receive moisture over a three (3) week period during the summer, they may not bloom in fall. Specific fertilizer recommendations depend on your soil type. A 5-10-10 application is recommended about six (6) weeks before spring bloom and after fall planting. Reblooming iris should have an additional application of fertilizer immediately after the completion of spring bloom. Avoid high nitrogen fertilizers. Alfalfa pellets are extremely beneficial when incorporated into the soil around newly planted iris.

As always, if you have any questions please feel free to call Sutton's Iris Garden at 208-297-8995 Mon-Fri, 9 am to 3:30 pm MST or email info@suttoniris.com
