Imperial College London

Imperial College London is one of the top ten universities in the entire world, and is the number one university in London.

Oxford Royale students reside and study on campus at Imperial College's South Kensington accommodation, with sleek modern rooms and state-of-the-art facilities. Students will have the chance to network with like-minded peers from international backgrounds.

Imperial College was founded with the support of Prince Albert, husband of Queen Victoria, to aid in the cultural and scientific advancements of the area. It is now known as a hub of academic excellence, particularly in science and medicine.

Imperial has produced many incredible alumni, including Alexander Fleming, the physician who discovered penicillin, music legend and astrophysicist Brian May, and H.G. Wells, renowned science-fiction writer.

Whilst staying at Imperial, students will be able to enjoy the bustle of the city as well as the nearby green spaces of Hyde Park and Kensington Palace Gardens.

Explore South Kensington

Imperial College is located in South Kensington, a luxurious region of the city with countless treasures to explore, from royal palaces and relaxing gardens to fascinating museums and luxury shopping.

Our students love to venture to Harrods department store, with seven floors of high-end fashion and mouth watering foods. They can also explore the area for other culinary delights offered by a diverse range of cafes and restaurants.

South Kensington is known as the 'museum quarter' as it is host to the world famous Natural History Museum, the fascinating Science Museum and the incredible art history collection in the Victoria and Albert Museum. The Royal Albert Hall, an iconic music venue, is also close by and has featured famous performances from the likes of Adele, to Muhammed Ali.

The Experience

Unique Learning Model

Our teaching brings out the very best in every individual by expanding on what they already know and broadening their understanding. Our outstanding faculty develop and run career focused courses to help drive students towards ambitious goals, motivating them to achieve their greatest potential.

Students have the chance to escape the boundaries of traditional education through collaborative learning, interactive projects and practical activities such as making robots, live debates, building a business plan or taking part in a mock trial.

The cultural enrichment and social activities offered aim to help students build lasting friendships and discover their chosen location through guided tours, exciting excursions and so much more, including the grand finale of the Oxford Royale experience: the graduation ceremony.

Join a Global Community

We believe that global awareness, varied cultural experiences and broad international networks are key to carving a truly strong and successful path in a highly competitive world. Oxford Royale's summer schools offer exactly this.

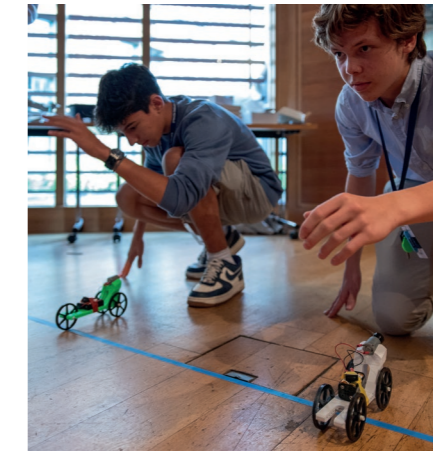

Many young people are capable of exceptional academic, personal and commercial success, but they are simply not aware of opportunities available to them. By offering a taste of quality higher education, multi-cultural experiences and innovative subject matter, we can help them to identify their strengths, passions and ambitions.

Our aim is for all students to have a life-changing experience full of fun!
