Greater Las Vegas Property Management
Customer since 2010

As a local business owner, George Vaughan knows first hand the effect having quality printed collateral and sales materials has on landing, and keeping, new business. George Vaughan has owned and operated Greater Las Vegas Property Management for more than 12 years. The company specializes in family/residential housing and offers property management, leasing and investment sales, lease enforcement and accounting services.

Finding the right low-cost, high-quality print solution is important for this local business that frequently prints flyers, brochures, and other collateral for its properties. George has been a customer of Vegas Ink and Toner for since 2010, purchasing toner cartridges and printer repair services. Here's what George has to say...

"Vegas Ink and Toner always helps when I'm in a jam with their same day service. It's nice to know that if I need something special they either have it in stock or can order it quickly – they never leave me in a lurch!"

If George were to tell you why he trusts his business to Vegas Ink and Toner, he'd say "They're local, service oriented, have high-quality products and rapid service."
