

At SurfaceLogix, we stand as your trusted source for premium paver sealers and more, boasting over 70 years of industry excellence. We're not just about products; we're about exceptional service. Our commitment to contractors and distributors across the US goes beyond providing top-notch sealers, cleaners, and surface prep solutions.

What sets us apart?

Unparalleled Service: We offer fast turn-around, seamless product support, and expert guidance to help you maximize our offerings.

Industry Engagement: Our team actively participates in industry trade shows and events, providing firsthand insights and expertise.

On-Site Training: Contractors can take advantage of our on-site training programs, equipping you with the knowledge to apply our unique products for optimal results.

A Rich History in Surface Protection:

SurfaceLogix began in 1950 with a focus on surface preservation. From waterproofing mixtures to cutting-edge sealers, we've evolved with the times, serving diverse applications like swimming pools, stamped concrete, interlocking pavers, and more.
