

SUGAR CONE LIGHT

Sugar Cone Light by ceramicist Rich Miller is part of The New Craftsmen's 'Claylarks' collection. Available in a rich array of glaze colours inspired by pottery sherds found in the Thames, this pendant light was developed in response to the 18th century sugar industry and looks to his own cultural ancestry.

Dia. 195 x H350mm (shade only)
Dia. 7.7 x H13.7 inches
Drop: 3350mm (including shade)
Drop: 131.8 inches (including shade)
3.5kg

- SKU code: RIM016, RIM017, RIM018, RIM019
- Material: Stonware, glaze, old english brass ceiling rose, antique chain, steel plate
- Lead time: 4-6 weeks
- Flex Length: 3m cable, 3m chain
- Country of wiring & Plug available: UK wiring as standard, international wiring available
- Bulbs included: No
- Flex and plug colour: Antique 38mm chain, brown twisted fabric braided cable
- Bulb holder finish: Old english brass
- Bulb recommended: Tala Bulb, E27 [standard edison screw], Sphere I
- Wattage: 13W LED
- Voltage: 230V

Customisable Options:

- Drop/Flex Length: Alternative drop lengths available (POA)
- Flex Colour: Custom flex colours can be discussed (POA)
- Size: Custom shade sizes can be discussed (POA)
- Finish: Custom glaze colours and finishes can be discussed (POA)

Additional notes & guidelines:

- These lights are wired by a qualified professional and comply with BS EN 60598 which is the British standards code for portable luminaires under 1000v
- Due to the handmade nature of this product and the type of glaze/ reduction firing, there may be variations in glaze finish, consistency and tone
- This light requires assembly to be hung in position
- This light requires installation by an electrician, in accordance with local wiring and building regulations. Always use the correct light bulb. Do not exceed the maximum wattage

For more information please contact

trade@thenewcraftsmen.com

SUGAR CONE LIGHT

- It is at the discretion of the person carrying out the installation to use suitable fixings for mounting in the intended location.
- This product is fragile. Handle with care
- Hand wash shade in warm, soapy water

For more information please contact

trade@thenewcraftsmen.com

