

Improving the system of justice through education

Your school's subscription to the Aspen Learning Library gives you access to the NITA Reference collection. The National Institute for Trial Advocacy (NITA), a leading authority on legal advocacy, exists to help law students, new attorneys, and seasoned litigators learn and practice legal advocacy skills such as taking depositions, making opening and closing arguments, examining witnesses, and more.

The NITA Reference collection is uniquely positioned to help you bridge the gap between passing the bar and showing up to your first day as a new associate with relevant practice skills to build confidence and experience.

Titles in the NITA Reference collection:

- Objections at Trial
- Federal Rules of Evidence with Objections
- Foolproof: The Art of Communication for Lawyers and Professionals
- Expert Testimony: Guide for Expert Witnesses and Lawyers Who Examine Them
- And many more

Benefits of the NITA Reference collection include:

- Up-to-date advice on how to make evidentiary objections at trial.
- Insight into the nuances of rules in the deposition process.
- Materials to prepare for summer internship placement.
- Tips and strategies for moot court competition.
