

What's New?

At High Country Quilts?

Wow! What a year it's been! We feel so honored to have been of service to so many of our local and military organizations during these trying times. It was very rewarding for us to be able to give back to our community! Hopefully you were able to finish up some UFO's while learning the ins and outs of mask-making!

Even though our 'Spring Quilt Market' was cancelled, we've been able to come up with some wonderful classes utilizing beautiful fabrics and simple techniques. If machine embroidery is your cup of tea, you might want to look at 'Candy Cane Christmas', 'Patriotic Alphabet', or our old favorite...Stitchin' it up for the Holidays!

If 'piecing' is your forte, check out Karen's Patriotic Spiral Star, or the gorgeous Canyon Block of the Month by Wing and a Prayer. You will love the traditional look of both of these masterpieces.

If applique is your thing, we haven't left you out! Join us for Joyeux Noel, McKenna Ryan's latest, or Jason Yenter's Rainbow of Jewels. Both of these are absolutely stunning!

We also have 4 very special events coming up! Donelle will be back with a fun workshop featuring many different Westalee Rulers as she teaches us the 'oh so easy' techniques of Rulerwork. We are excited to welcome Sandra back to help us discover our true stitch identity in BERNINA Academy III. If you are looking for a true machine embroidery 'spa day', join us for another Super Spree!...what a treat! And, last, but not least, Shop Hop is just around the corner. Join us August 6-29 for over three weeks of hoppin' fun! This year's 'custom' fabric beautifully represents the many ways to 'Experience Colorado'!

We hope that you are all staying safe and well. We truly appreciate your business and support especially during these uncertain times.

Have a 'pieceful' day,
Jean and Karen
