Stitch Wrapped Stitch

Double the Perle 5 thread on your needle by threading the needle and then tying the ends together in a knot. Start at the end of antler and chain stitch to the end of the antler. Repeat until all antlers are stitched. If you do not like to chain stitch, you can do several long stitches up and down the antler. The point of this stitch if to pad the antlers to make them look three dimensional.

Next, use the Fyre Werks to "wrap" the antlers. Once again, start at the end of the antler and pull the thread up on one side of the antler and sink the needle on the opposite side of the antler. Continue to stitch coming up on the same side of the antler and sinking down on the same side of the antler.
