Bay Area Artist's Association • November, 2022 • Volume 32 • Issue 11

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Here come our wonderful Fall Pacific Northwest rains. As the deciduous trees shed their lovely colors, we transition again.

We had soooo much fun at the October General Meeting. Catherine Walworth, Coos Bay Potter, and BAAA member gave sixteen artists (14 members/2 guests) the chance to Play with Clay, and try our hand at coiling with clay. Playing with Clay was a two week session. The first week we built our many-styled creations. Then, Catherine took our works home with her to dry and firing in her kiln. Two weeks later we met and painted our dried and fired pieces. Such fun, and a lot of laughs.

Looking forward to our November General Meeting on November 20, Kim Kimerling will lead us in collage. Kim will provide the substrate, but if you have a favorite substrate, or a piece that you are currently working on, bring that in. Kim recommends also bringing any materials that you might wish to collage with: art papers, newspapers, maps, book pages, magazines, fabrics, jewels and sparkly things, stencils, feathers, wood pieces, favorite acrylic colors – whatever your heart desires.

Kim Kimerling will also be opening his show at Black Market Gourmet in November. More details about the show will be sent via email. Don't miss it. BAAA Eden Hall Show at SWOCC Opening on Thursday, November 3 at 12-noon. Please do attend, as Director, James Fritz would like the students to meet the artists. Many thanks to Wendy Whitaker, Show Chair, and her volunteers Archi Davenport, Janet Ratnour, Rick Fox, Christine Hanlon, Judy Caldwell, Jean Boynton and Sarita Southgate. Twenty-one members provided 51 pieces of artwork.

FEATURED ARTIST OF THE MONTH

Carollee Tucker, BAAA Featured Artist

On display Oct - Nov

Upstairs, Coos Art Museum

I have drawn and painted since I was young simply because it was fun. I began painting in casein because that was the first book I read on painting. For quite a while I simply copied photographs I found in the National Geographic magazine. Next, I discovered that someone in my area was teaching oil painting so I tried that for a while. Then people generally seemed to be discovering acrylic painting so I took a class in that. I don't really remember how I discovered watercolor, but I really enjoyed it. At a few classes with various instructors.

The painting style that really grabbed my attention was with Hal Lambert of Laguna Beach. I took several of the paint outs and classes he taught and that was when my true love of watercolor set in, and I have never looked back. It was kind of messy and loose and carefree and suited me perfectly.

I have enjoyed many years of classes at Coos Art Museum with Liv Drahos because she would encourage her students to "paint outside of their comfortable boxes" and come up with a some surprising unexpected results. There's that fun again. I currently belong to BAAA and I am a member of the co-operative gallery, The Art Loft, just down the street. We have an informal paint group on Friday mornings. Please join us and have some fun.
