Bay Area Artist's Association • August, 2023 • Volume 33 • Issue 8

Thank you to all of you who were able to attend the annual BAAA picnic. Jim and I always enjoy having everyone come to our place. It was a warm and sunny day and everyone dressed for the occasion. We had a great time with lots of wonderful food! Of course, Jim always likes to show everyone his train layout and 32 ford. Special Thanks to Jim and Sam for cooking our hamburgers, hot dogs and pineapple.

We had a short meeting to remind everyone of the upcoming Pony Village Mall show. Drop off is Wednesday August 2nd, 10am to noon at room 162 in Pony Village Mall. Pick up your art on Sunday, August 6th, 3-5 pm. The room is where the Harry Richie's jewelry store was in the mall for years. Dutch Mostert will be our Judge and he will be awarding ribbons to several categories. There are still time slots to fill for our members to sit and cover the exhibition. Please contact Nadine to see what times are needed for your help with what we hope to be an annual open to all, exhibition and fund raiser for the association. Contact Nadine at: nadinetravelsbytrain@gmail.com

Happy painting everyone!

BAAA General Meeting Refreshments

Clara Van Dykauizen of Myrtle Point transformed the ordinary task of “bring refreshments” into a sensuous feast. Her spread included fruit kabobs, sandwich rolls, cookies, gold wrapped truffles, German chocolate cake and more. Her attention to details, colors, and foods enhanced the gastronomic treats with visual pleasure. She coordinated the tablecloth, pottery, flowers, and her outfit, showing me what is possible with love, care, and personal engagement.

I was so impressed by Clara’s sensuous feast at our June meeting, I felt compelled to write this “5 Star Review.”

Nadine Archer captured the impressive visuals in this photo. Creativity abounds among BAAA members. Submitted with admiration, by Shinan Barclay 7/20/23.

BAAA Featured Artist

Jean Boynton

Jean was raised in Seattle, becoming an Oregonian through colleges (Willamette studying art with Carl Hall, & OSU), and marriage. In 1960 she moved to Coos Bay when her pharmacist husband became a partner in Empire Rexall Drug Store. While raising children (Jennifer, Lee, Tom), helping with store gift buying and display work, etc. she continued taking art classes. (oils with Maggie Karl, Sarah Spaugh, Howard Hall, Vicki McKean-Smith, design and pottery with Carol Vernon, pastels with Pat Weaver, and several watercolor classes with Terry Magill, Fred Vassar, Donna Wright, also Julie Spence, Liv Drahos, Robin Jenkins, Carolyn LaGrand, and workshops from Ellen Gabehart, Larry Johnson, Nelson Sangren, Winnie Givot, and Scott Johnson among others. She has also taken classes in Seattle, Bend and the at Sitka Center, most recently with Angie Granger.

While teaching for Coquille School District, she and Arlene Roblan put together a booklet, Art Experiments for Kindergarten Through Sixth Grade which was printed by Coos ESD and available to all teachers in the county. Previously, she had included creative art projects for preschoolers in the parenting booklets and classes she created and taught at SWOCC for several years. Her mural design was chosen for the first Day Care Center module at the college several years ago. Jean took Art Therapy classes during her studies for her Masters in Counseling, and used art regularly to assist children to express their feelings while working as an elementary school counselor and as a volunteer at Light House Center for Grieving Children (Hospice).

Since retirement, Jean has focused on exploring the medium of watercolor. She feels the watery effects express the beauty, light and harmony of nature. One of her goals has been to share her love of nature and to gain skill in capturing the light/glow she sees in living things. In recent years she has been enjoying exploring experimental techniques: pours, limited palettes, use of liquid watercolor, nature stencils, and alcohol inks on yupo surfaces to allow more creativity to flow through. She especially likes the vibrant tones of alcohol inks and likens them to happy, little jewels brightening up a room.

Her work has been shown at Coos Art Museum, Gallery by the Bay, The Artist Loft, Second Street Gallery, Art by the Sea Gallery, Evergreen Court, Coos Bay Library, Bandon Library, High Tide Restaurant, and several other venues. She is a member of Bay Area Artist Association, Watercolor Society of Oregon, and Coos Art Museum.

ARTIST'S LOFT

Kimberly Wurster is Guest Artist at the Artist Loft Gallery

July 5th through August 26th

Kimberly's love for wildlife is evident in her beautiful, carefully rendered images of birds and sea creatures in their natural settings.

We invite you to a reception for Kimberly on Saturday, July 22nd from 2-4pm.

Kimberly's Bio:

I was born in southwestern Montana into a musical family and studied cello at the University of Montana. For several years, my husband Scott and I developed wildlife refuges, turning unproductive ranch wetlands into prime habitat for waterfowl and trout. We then moved to the Oregon Coast in 1995 where I shifted my artistic focus to painting fine art. I enjoy painting a variety of subjects including landscapes, but have a particular fondness for birds and wildlife. Depicting the habitat in which my subjects are found is a source of great joy for me. I find everything from moss, lichen and tree bark to beach and ocean scenes fascinating and seek opportunities to include them in my work. When watching a bird or any form of wildlife, not only function but thrive in an intact environment, I feel a tremendous sense of harmony. I welcome you into my world as an artist, to share my appreciation of the amazing and beautiful world in which we live.

Abstract Retrospective

Living in the mountains high above Coos Bay, GERALYN's paintings are inspired by her surrounding environment. The influence of the panoramic landscapes, textures and the dynamic nature of the Oregon coast are represented in both her abstracts and impressionistic landscape paintings. Through her process of layering paint and glazing, GERALYN achieves a depth in her work that draws the viewer into the inner world of her observations. Black Market Gourmet is pleased to feature GERALYN's abstract works in this show that runs from July 10th through the end of August.

Show hours are mostly by appointment. Please call either Black Market Gourmet or GERALYN to schedule a time and day to view the show.
