Company Description*

Include basic information about your small business, such as name, origin, etc. How did your company start? What product or service does your company offer? Tell us about a distinctive feature of your products or services that makes you stand out. Who are your target consumers? Provide a specific feature about your company that wins your consumers. What are the current and future goals of your company?

What achievements has this individual accomplished for his/her small business? Please provide examples from the past two years*

The Best of Australia Small Business Awards don't go to the biggest businesses. We pride ourselves on celebrating incredible stories of passion, tenacity, courage, innovation, and disruption from entrepreneurs running businesses of all sizes and at all stages. This section is all about you, and your entrepreneurial journey. What does entrepreneurship mean to you? Is it leadership that you are proud of? How does your business demonstrate your success as an entrepreneur? Which areas of excellence in your business show you outstanding performance as an entrepreneur? We want to hear your story, and what is coming up next for you.

My company should win this Award because...*

Tell us why your company should win this award. You can provide accomplishments, a change implemented by your business, or solutions to a challenge. How will this award benefit you? Provide convincing reasons why your business is fit to win the award. Also, tell us how this award will help your company grow.

Your business growth*

In this section, describe the growth pattern of your business. How did your business evolve over the years? Draw a comparison between when you start and where your business is at now. What has changed? Have you introduced new products or services? Have your profits grown in the past 2 years? Have you recruited new staff members? How is your workforce evolving with time? What is your client growth rate? What change are you most proud of?

What results do you want the judges to know*

In this section, showcase your achievements. Display how your success and why you deserve recognition. Tell us more about the strategies you have followed to achieve your goals. What, in your view, makes you stand out from other competitors in your industry?
