

PRODUCT SAFETY RECALL

DO YOU OWN THIS PRODUCT?

- "LED Flashlight Rechargeable Strobe Torch with strap" sold by Moon and Back™.
- Contents of packaging: Torch with Micro USB cable included - 18cm.

WHY THE PRODUCT IS RECALLED: The supplied USB cable is unsuitable for use in chargers with currents exceeding 1A (including fast chargers, or high power chargers). If used with chargers with currents exceeding 1A, the USB cable may overheat and pose a FIRE RISK.

ACTION REQUIRED: Moon and Back™ requests that consumers urgently:

- STOP using the USB cable supplied with the product.
- RETURN THE USB CABLE COMPONENT OF THE PRODUCT PURCHASED with your purchase details (when and where you purchased) to the School you purchased it from for a replacement cable. The School will record your details. Moon and Back will then arrange to provide the school with a replacement cable for you to pick up at your convenience.

Moon and Back™ requests that you urgently inform it if you have sold or passed on the product, the usb cable or any part of it, or if you are unable to return the product for any reason.

Moon and Back™ strives to ensure that the products it sells are of the highest quality, and do not pose safety risks to consumers, and Moon and Back™ sincerely apologises to its customers for any inconvenience caused by this recall.
