

BAROQUE GARDEN

VARUN BAHL FOR COCOON FINE RUGS

Cocoon Fine Rugs and Varun Bahl unveil the confluence of décor and fashion in the form of Baroque Garden, a collection of legendary rugs, where the envelope has been pushed on both counts. These unique rugs are an unapologetic and unabashed ode to a time, which is known for its regality, flamboyance and glamour.

Bucolic styles juxtaposed with modern aesthetics, the Cocoon Fine Rugs and Varun Bahl collection essays the era with true justice.

Lending his extraordinary eye for detail, MD and creative director, Ayush Choudhary, has always been one to color outside the lines in terms of creativity but never comprising on caliber. Being of the view that rugs are art for your floors, he wanted to bring the artistic sensibilities of the runway to homes. He joined forces with Varun Bahl, who is famed for his ability to add a certain modern flair to old world charm, to create this collection. Each rug in this collection is a testament to the quality of Cocoon's rugs and his interpretation of the epoch, which is identified by the use of motifs.

The possessor of these rugs is one who appreciates the finer things in life and enjoys ornate pieces of culture that embody liberation.

The Baroque Garden is not for the faint-hearted; it is for the fearless.
