

UCLArts & Healing Online Trainings at a Glance

Certificate Program in Social Emotional Arts (SEA) vs. Social Emotional Arts on a Shoestring Training (SEAS)

For information on upcoming online sessions and registration, please view our programs page.

For more information about the difference between these online trainings, please visit our faq page.

	Certificate Program in Social Emotional Arts (SEA) Online Training	Social Emotional Arts on a Shoestring Online Training (SEAS)
Admissions	Application required. No prerequisites required.	No application required; register directly on the website. No prerequisites required.
Curriculum Description	In addition to learning scripted activities in six art forms, trainees learn to develop and deliver their own program from start to finish—from identifying the needs of the community to be served, to program assessment and evaluation.	Trainees learn to deliver scripted activities in four art forms, with instructions for working with groups vs. individuals, accommodating different abilities, and advising individuals on how they continue the activities on their own.
Capacity	25 trainees	50 trainees
Duration	17-live class sessions via Zoom over nine weekends	4-live class sessions via Zoom over two weekends
Total Hours	57-hour training	14-hour training
Times	Sessions, on average, are four hours in length, beginning at 9:00 am Pacific Time, and select sessions may end at 5:00 pm Pacific Time.	9:00 am – 12:30 pm Pacific Time
Continuing Education	Continuing education credits are available for psychologists, LCSWs, MFTs, LEPs, LPCCs, and RNs for an additional $165.	Continuing education credits are available for psychologists, LCSWs, MFTs, LEPs, LPCCs, and RNs for an additional $50.
Curriculum Materials	Handouts will be provided.	Handouts will be provided, and an optional curriculum manual is available for purchase.
Certification	Trainees who complete this training will receive a Certificate in Social Emotional Arts. Trainees are required to adhere to our Expectations & Policies to receive the certificate.	Trainees who complete this training will receive a Certificate of Completion for Social Emotional Arts on a Shoestring.
Fee	$198	$179