PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Stephanie Dillon's artistic éclat is coveted by collectors worldwide and celebrated by her peers for her strong compositions of light and color that evoke an emotional response and draw the viewer into her canvas with rhythmic precision—combining her passions of art and unwavering activism, the juxtaposition of her tantalizing demonstrative captures the "vulgar beauty" of social unrest, degradation and environmental inhumanity with technical wit and sensitivity. As a self-taught artist, Stephanie's multi-disciplinary techniques and mixed media sensibilities allow her to reach diverse markets, set trends, share ideas and work independently and in cohesive, collaborative settings.

HISTORY

- Stephanie Dillon Art | July 2015 - Current
What started as an artistic outlet for the rollercoaster ride of emotions I endured following an unexpected life changing event helped shape how I grappled with and express my disappointments, grief, joys and pain. Recurring themes embody my work: the charm of imperfections and the flaws of overconsumption. I seek beauty in the most unexpected of places. What's old is still beautiful, what we have is enough and art is everywhere.
- Rolling Stone Culture Council Contributor | 2021- Current
- Entrepreneur | Studio in Minneapolis Founder & Owner of The Citizen-T Project | February 2020 - Current Rescued previously worn t-shirts and "beautified" them with new art. Sold to high-end boutiques around the country and online.
- Collaborate on a high-end fashion collection with designer Emily Burnett
- "Walls for Change" is a series of event activations that help heal the planet.
- Executive Producer | Self-employed 2007-2016 Financed independent films in both large format narratives and documentaries under the Sidewalk Films, LLC
