Owner of Barbarian Combat Sports - Sunbury, PA

“When I was looking for mats to outfit my new MMA gym and training facility, I wanted a mat that would be durable, easy-to-clean and a mat that could handle the hard-core training and punishment I would give it. Resilite mats are the ideal surface and can withstand the impact from a MMA “Barbarian” like myself. I’ve trained in many gyms and on other mats throughout my career, and only recommend Resilite Mats because of their superior durability and impact protection!”
