ARBOR

Woodgrains

Add a subtle layer of visual interest with natural and contemporary woodgrain patterns. The realistic look of Arbor mimics the beauty of real wood, adding a warm and organic feel to your framing. Solid color cores, carefully picked to match each woodgrain surface, create a seamless connection between the artwork and the natural world. Combine the organic beauty of Arbor with its 100% conservation quality and you have a one-of-a-kind work of art.
