

Quality Policy

AVIVA Metals has adopted a quality management system based on the AS9120 quality management standard and is committed to providing goods that meet the requirements of our customers, within a culture that embraces continual improvement and a first time right policy.

Michael Greathead

President