

UKhammocks Terms & Conditions for Overseas Expeditions

Please read these terms & conditions carefully before completing and returning your booking form. Once a completed booking form has been accepted in writing by UKhammocks all the persons named on the booking form ("the client(s)") will have entered a binding contract on the basis of these terms & conditions. If you have any questions about them please do not hesitate to contact us.

"UKhammocks" means Mat Howes trading as UKhammocks, 9 Jubilee Court, Wylde Rd, Tidworth, SP9 7FB UK.

1. Agreement

Agreement on the basis these terms & conditions arise upon the fulfilment of all of the following: receipt by UKhammocks of a properly completed booking form accompanied by the payment or deposit specified in that booking form; clearance of the payment or deposit into UKhammocks bank account; acceptance by UKhammocks in writing or email.

UKhammocks reserves the right, in its absolute discretion and without the need to give reasons, to refuse to accept a booking. In such circumstances no agreement arises and UKhammocks will return any payment accompanying the booking form.

The agreement is between UKhammocks and the client(s) and is the sole agreement between those parties. No variation of these terms & conditions shall be applicable unless agreed in writing by UKhammocks before the relevant expedition.

The person signing the booking form shall be deemed to sign that form for his / herself and as agent for all other persons listed on that form and warrants that he / she is appointed agent for that purpose.

The agreement is governed by English law, and any disputes will be dealt with by the English courts.

2. Payment

Your £500.00 deposit is non-refundable; this is used to make the bookings for accommodation, guides, food etc. The outstanding balance of the fee as specified on the booking form must be paid in full no later than eight weeks before the expedition. If not so paid, UKhammocks reserves the right to treat the agreement as cancelled by the client(s) pursuant to clause 4, below. If you do not pay the balance of your expedition cost within 8 weeks of departure your booking will be terminated and you will lose your deposit.

3. Prices

Whilst every effort is made to limit prices to those given in UKhammocks promotional literature and website, UKhammocks reserves the right to alter prices should its costs in hosting an expedition increase for reasons beyond its reasonable control (including, without limitation, the cost of labour, fuel, transport and materials).

In the event that a price is altered the client(s) will be notified as soon as reasonably possible and the balance of the altered price will be payable on the same terms as was the original price.

In the event of the price being thus increased by 15% or more the client(s) may opt to cancel the booking and will then be entitled to a refund of all monies paid.

4. Cancellation by client(s)

If the booking is cancelled by the client(s) (for any reason) the following cancellation change will arise:

Cancellation more than 8 weeks before expedition: full refund of all monies paid, with the exception of the deposit which is non-refundable.

Cancellation less than 8 weeks before the course or expedition 100% of fees payable: no refund.

These dates refer to UKhammocks receiving written notification of the client(s)'s Cancellation. UKhammocks strongly recommend you to take out insurance against irrecoverable cancellation costs. The client(s) acknowledges that it is reasonable for such penalties to arise, given the need for UKhammocks to make preparations for an expedition substantially in advance of the course.

5. Date Changes and transfers for expeditions

If the client(s) is prevented from travelling on the expedition by genuine circumstances the client(s) may transfer their booking to another person provided they meet all the requirements relating to that expedition. The client(s) must provide proof of why they are unable to travel at the time you transfer your booking. A transfer fee of £25 will be payable. Bookings may not be transferred to another person in any other circumstances. In the event of the client(s) transferring their booking(s) to another person, they are jointly and severally liable for payment of the expedition price and other associated expenses.

Client(s) that want to change the dates of their expedition (having paid either their deposit payment or full payment) may do so up to 8 weeks before the start of their expedition, however they must pay an administration fee of £25.00

6. Variation of a course by UKhammocks

A UKhammocks expedition is, by its very nature, exposed to natural variables, including the weather. Whilst every reasonable effort is made to deal with (indeed to learn from) such contingencies there may be occasions when UKhammocks, through no fault of its own, is forced to vary or modify a course itinerary at short notice or decides to do so in order to take advantage of natural circumstances.

By signing these "Terms and Conditions" implies that the client(s) accepts and understands that there are hazards involved in this kind of expedition, including injury, disease, loss or damage to property, inconvenience and discomfort. The outline itineraries given for each expedition must therefore be taken as an indication of what each group should accomplish, and not as a contractual obligation on the part of UKhammocks. Changes in itinerary may be caused by local political conditions, flight cancellations, mechanical breakdown, weather, border restrictions, sickness, or other unforeseeable circumstances.

It is a fundamental condition of joining any UKhammocks expedition that the client(s) accept this flexibility, and acknowledge that delays and alterations and their results, such as inconvenience, discomfort, or disappointment, are possible: UKhammocks will always endeavour to provide suitable alternative arrangements.

The client(s) acknowledges that information about expeditions provided by UKhammocks is given in the best of faith but that because of the variability of nature it may be reasonable to alter or modify an expedition and that in such circumstances it is not reasonable for UKhammocks to be liable for any losses consequential on such a change and that UKhammocks' liability is limited accordingly.

7. The conduct of an expedition and observing the law

The client(s) acknowledges that during a UKhammocks expedition he / she is required to submit to the reasonable instructions and leadership of UKhammocks,

The client(s) acknowledges that persons attending a UKhammocks expedition are entitled to expect a high standard of conduct and regard for personal wellbeing on the part of all clients.

By signing these "Terms and Conditions" implies that the client(s) accept the leader's authority to make decisions affecting the safe conduct of the expedition, and/or individual expedition team members. It also obliges the client(s) to comply with the expedition leader's instructions and with the laws and regulations of the host country. If the client(s) disregard these instructions and laws (in particular unlawful possession of drugs or firearms), the client(s) will be removed from the expedition. The decision of the expedition leader as to the conduct, itinerary, and objectives of the course or expedition and its members is final.

For this reason the client(s) accepts that UKhammocks may, in its absolute discretion and without the need to give reasons, arrange for him / her to be removed from an expedition, if necessary against his / her will, or to be confined to base camp if in the leader's judgement the actions of that individual puts their own health and safety at risk, or jeopardises the safety, enjoyment or welfare of the other clients, or jeopardises the expedition's aims and objectives, or puts the welfare of wildlife or habitats at risk.

Circumstances in which this might occur include (without limitation) disorderly or abusive conduct; intoxication; inadequacy of clothing or equipment; incapacity or inability to meet the rigours of the course. In such circumstances the client(s) will not be entitled to a refund of monies and UKhammocks will not be liable for any losses so resulting.

In such circumstances UKhammocks reserves the right to recover any costs incurred as a result.

8. Liability

The client(s) acknowledges that by joining the anexpedition in the host country, UKhammocks' responsibility does not commence until the appointed meeting time, UKhammocks shall not be responsible for any additional expenses incurred by the client to meet up with the group if the client(s) does not arrive at the appointed rendezvous.

UKhammocks expeditions take place in open countryside and wilderness areas and are by their very nature are not absolutely free from hazard. UKhammocks makes every effort to minimise risk to clients, and instructs clients in the safe negotiation of such risk as may remain. Consequently, the client(s) acknowledges that there are circumstances in which an accident could befall a client without UKhammocks being at fault and accepts that to that extent he / she is taking part in a UKhammocks expedition at his / her own risk.

UKhammocks only accepts liability for physical injury to a client(s) that is shown to result from negligence on the part of UKhammocks.

The client (s) acknowledges that other loss, damage and expense (including, without limitation, loss of money, loss or damage to clothes and possessions, losses arising on the cancellation of a booking and the expenses of delay and harm caused other than by the negligence of UKhammocks) howsoever arising is not the responsibility of UKhammocks and that UKhammocks liability is hereby limited.

9. Insurance.

It is compulsory that the client(s) is in possession of their own personal insurance cover which covers them fully for the adventurous activities detailed in the expedition briefing pack, which must include adequate cover for baggage, in-country medical expenses, the cost of repatriation should they become too ill to continue, including helicopter rescue and air ambulance and to include 'Working with hand tools'. If the client(s) joins the course or expedition without adequate insurance they may not be allowed to continue, with no right of refund. The client(s) is/are required to carry proof of insurance.

10. Travel Documents

Any information or advice provided by UKhammocks on matters such as permits, visas, vaccinations, climate, clothing, baggage, special equipment, etc. is given in good faith but without responsibility on the part of UKhammocks, the client(s) is solely responsible, where necessary, for ensuring that he / she has all necessary valid travel documents.

11. Complaints

In the unlikely event that a client(s) has cause for complaint about a UKhammocks course, complaint should be made to a representative of UKhammocks during the event, in order that corrective action can, if necessary, be taken. The client(s) acknowledges that it is unreasonable to take no action during a course but to complain later. However, should a problem not be resolved, complaint should be made in writing within 28 days. To the extent permitted by law UKhammocks will not be liable in respect of claims first intimated later than 28 days from the close of the relevant course.

12. Subsequent instruction by client (s)

Although all UKhammocks expeditions are taught by highly experienced & capable leaders, it is not intended that any instruction provided to any client(s) while on an expedition will in any way qualify that/those client(s) to instruct any third party & no warranty is made to that effect. UKhammocks hereby excludes any liability it might have to any third party in respect of any loss or damage suffered or incurred by that third party in its reliance on any skills taught by any client(s) on the basis of having attended any UKhammocks expedition.

13. Model release acknowledgement

Any likeness or image of the client(s) secured or taken on any UKhammocks expeditions may be used by UKhammocks without charge in all media (whether now existing or in the future invented) for bona fide promotional or marketing purposes, including without limitation promotional materials of any kind, such as brochures, slides, video shows and the internet.

14. Medical conditions and fitness

The client(s) must complete and sign a consent form prior to course commencement. All medical information provided will be treated in the strictest confidence.

Fitness requirements for UKhammocks expeditions are outlined in the expedition descriptions. UKhammocks cannot be held responsible for illness occurring as a result of an ongoing medical condition or poor fitness level. If the client(s) has a medical condition, UKhammocks strongly advises the client(s) seeks their doctor's advice.

It is the responsibility of the client(s) to have their fitness and physical condition checked by both a medical and dental professional prior to the expedition. If in the opinion of the expedition leader, the health of the client(s) is at risk, the course/expedition leader is entitled to authorise immediate evacuation and repatriation, and UKhammocks will be entitled to recover any costs incurred.

15. Insolvency or cancellation by UKhammocks

In the unlikely event that UKhammocks becomes insolvent all monies will be refunded in full. In the event that UKhammocks cancels an expedition, all monies will be refunded in full, or if preferred transferred as a deposit for another expedition of the same cost.

UKhammocks reserves the right to cancel any expedition for which there are not enough clients to make the expedition economically viable.

However, if UKhammocks's cancellation is due to force majeure, any reasonable expenses UKhammocks may have incurred will be deducted from the client's refund. UKhammocks does not accept liability for any loss arising from cancellations including non-refundable or penalty-carrying airline tickets, special clothing and equipment, visa, passport and vaccination fees, or other expedition-related expenses. Please note that it is the client(s)'s own responsibility to protect themselves against airline and travel agency cancellation to and from the assembly point by taking out adequate travel insurance.

16. Inclusions and exclusions

UKhammocks will provide all the arrangements and services as detailed in the expedition briefing pack, from and to the assembly point in the host country. The expedition fee does not include travel to and away from the assembly point. It is the responsibility of the client(s) to make their own way to the assembly point in time for the advertised meeting date and time.

UKhammocks insists on punctuality and cannot accept liability for any loss arising from failure to arrive at the assembly point on time. The published fee includes all travel from and to the assembly point · all accommodation and base camp facilities · meals and provisions at fixed camps · access to specialist equipment · the services of local guides · the services of the expedition leaders · any other services or goods specifically mentioned in the course description / expedition briefing pack. The published fee does not include visa and vaccination costs · personal travel insurance · additional drinks, food, in transit telephone calls · airport taxes payable in host countries · private trips and excursions · anything else not specifically included.

17. Single supplements

The costs are based on two people sharing where there is fixed accommodation. It is often possible to arrange single facilities in fixed accommodation, but there will be an extra surcharge of £250 involved.

18. Expedition equipment

All communal and group equipment such as tools, group shelters, cooking equipment, expedition medical kit etc. will be provided by UKhammocks. The client(s) will receive full training for any equipment they are likely to use. The client(s) will need to provide their own clothing and personal equipment. A detailed list of personal clothing and equipment required will be sent as part of the expedition briefing pack. Damage or loss to any equipment belonging to UKhammocks caused by carelessness, negligence or improper use will be charged appropriately and reasonably to the client(s) responsible for the loss or damage. Depending on the circumstances the client(s) may be able to recover this loss from their travel insurance.

19. Changes to this agreement

When making an application to join an expedition the client(s) confirms that they have read and understood all the terms and conditions above and agrees to abide by them. UKhammocks reserves the right to update the Terms & Conditions at any time, without notice.

20. Kit repatriation,

In the unlikely event we have to evacuate you from the jungle it must be understood your safety and that of the expedition members comes above your personal equipment. Some may be left or destroyed if needed. We advise ensuring your insurance covers your equipment should such a situation arise.
