CAST ALL YOUR ANXIETY ON HIM BECAUSE HE CARES FOR YOU.

1 PETER 5:7 NIV

Have you ever seen a bird
build a barn to store food in?

Of course not. That would be silly! Birds don't plant seeds, wait for plants to grow, and then keep the food in barns like people do. They don't have to. Jesus tells us that God takes care of the birds.

God gives birds bugs and seeds and berries and nuts to eat. They don't worry about breakfast, lunch, or dinner. They just eat what God has for them.

God takes care of birds . . .

and deer and lions,
and the sun and the moon,
the air and rain . . .

everything in his world.

And God takes care of you, too.
