6 God is merciful. He is kind to undeserving sinners.

 “...you are a God ready to forgive, gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love...” (Nehemiah 9:17b)

Even though sinners deserve God’s righteous anger and punishment, God is merciful. God’s mercy is like a free gift or a present—something wonderful given to you that you have not earned or done anything to deserve. God’s mercy is His gift of kindness shown toward sinners. One way God shows His mercy toward sinners is by being slow to get angry and slow to punish us. In His mercy, God made a way for helpless sinners to be forgiven and saved from both death and hell.

 What does this mean for you?

You must depend on God’s mercy in order to be saved.
